This book provides 'first-hand' interviews with some of the pioneers of Critical Theory in the fields of International Relations Theory and Security Studies. The interviews are combined innovatively with reflective essays to create an engaging and accessible discussion of the legacy and challenges of critical thinking. A unique forum that combines first-person discussion and secondary commentary on a variety of theoretical positions, the book explores in detail the interaction between different theories and approaches, including post colonialism, feminism, and post structuralism .

The rise of India as a major power has generated new interest in understanding the drivers of its foreign policy. This book argues that analysing India's foreign and security policies as representational practices which produce India's identity as a postcolonial nation-state helps to illuminate the conditions of possibility in which foreign policy is made. Spanning the period between 1947 and 2004, the book focuses on key moments of crisis, such as the India-China war in 1962 and the nuclear tests of 1972 and 1998, and the approach to international affairs of significant leaders like Jawaharlal Nehru. The analysis sheds new light on these key events and figures and develops a strong analytical narrative around India's foreign policy behaviour, based on an understanding of its postcolonial identity.

The two-millennium contacts between India and Vietnam brought them closer to take a common stand on various issues of international significance and stood their diplomatic relations in good stead during the bipolar cold war era and the contemporary phase of globalization. India's integration with the ASEAN process had made India and Vietnam to reinforce the contours of their strategic partnership which owes much to their common concerns and interests in the Asia-Pacific region rather than compulsions of time. The views expressed and the inferences drawn in this anthology are coherent and thought-provoking for the policy-makers and scholarly community concerned with the India-Vietnam burgeoning partnership in the context of prospects for the emerging New Asia and Asian century.

- 5 Trials of engagements: the future of US public diplomacy / Edited by Ali Fisher and Scott Lucas.-- Boston: Martinus, 2011. 309p.
ISBN : 9789004179400.
327.73 FIS11 102731
Trials of Engagement: the Future of US Public Diplomacy, with contributors from leading scholars in disciplines from international relations to communications, considers the challenges for this 'new' public diplomacy, especially as it is pursued by the US Government. It highlights the challenges of aligning policy and projection, overcoming bureaucratic tensions, and the language used by public diplomats. Most importantly, the volume illustrates that the issues for public diplomacy are more than those of a producer seeking to win the hearts and minds of passive 'audiences'. Trials of Engagement portrays public diplomacy as an increasingly public project.

330.9 ECONOMIC SITUATION AND CONDITIONS

- 6 Saeed, John
China and the global economy in the 21st century / John Saeed.-- London: Routledge, 2011. 202p.
(Routledge studies in the growth economies of Asia; 107).
ISBN : 9780415670517.
330.951 SAE11 103246
As China continues to ride out the global economic crisis while still retaining year on year GDP growth it is increasingly important to understand how this 'new' economic giant, with its communist-capitalist model operates its economic and business environments. This book is designed to scientifically examine the contextual variables that foster sustainably dynamic economic growth in China. In particular, the contributors provide an incisive analysis of the contextual bases underlying such a dramatic rising economic power and the immense implications for enterprises and countries involved in dealing with China. Drawing on the latest studies and cutting edge research findings, this book analyses FDI, project management, internationalisation, the continued role of state-owned enterprises and doing business in China.

India after the global crisis / Shankar Acharya.-- New Delhi: Orient Blackswan, 2012. 226p.
ISBN : 9788125045090.
330.954 ACH12 103875

India after the Global Crisis assesses India's resilience in the face of the global financial crisis but then shows how the global crisis and our domestic policy failures have taken a toll on India's economic performance: growth has slowed significantly, inflation has remained high, the external current account deficit has more than doubled, and the rate of domestic investment has fallen. Drawing upon four decades of experience in the World Bank, the Central Government, academia and India Inc., Shankar Acharya probes deep into the daunting challenges that lie ahead for India.

954 INDIA/SOUTH ASIA - GENERAL HISTORY

- 10 Insurgent sepoys: Europe views the revolt of 1857 / edited by Shaswati Mazumdar.-- New Delhi: Routledge, 2011.
ISBN : 9780415597999.
954 MAZ11 102801
The Revolt of 1857 in India has so far largely been viewed as an event that was of interest to British and Indian scholars investigating the various consequences of British colonial rule in India. What has remained out of the focus of study during the last 150 years is the possible impact of the Revolt elsewhere, its so to say international dimension: what, in particular, was the reaction in Europe where elemental social and political transformations were underway. Whatever the varied nature of the reactions, the space given to the Revolt in many European newspapers and journals while it was in progress is certainly extensive. What is more, representations of and reflections on the Revolt appeared both during the event and for long after its suppression, above all in forms of popular fiction but also in historical accounts, letters, reminiscences and other forms of writing. The collection of essays in this volume ventures into this unexplored terrain and offers a first look at some of these European responses.
