Administration

PART I

Organisation of the Ministry

(i) Headquarters.-The Ministry of External Affairs is responsible for the conduct of India's relations with foreign countries. The Ministry is also responsible for the country's representation in the United Nations and advises other Ministries and State Governments when the latter have dealings with foreign governments or institutions. In the domestic sphere it is responsible for the Administration of the North East Frontier Agency and the Naga Hills and Tuensang Area and for matters of policy relating to the former French possessions in India. The administration of the Indian Emigration Act of 1923, the Reciprocity Act of 1943, the Port Haj Committee Act of 1932, the Indian Merchant Shipping Act in so far as it relates to pilgrim ships, the Indian Pilgrim Shipping Rules of 1933, the Protection of Pilgrims Act of 1887 (Bombay) and the Protection of the Mohammedan Pilgrims Act of 1896 (Bengal) are also the special responsibility of the Ministry of External Affairs.

The Ministry is in charge of a Minister of Cabinet rank. At present the Prime Minister is also the Minister of Foreign Affairs. A Deputy Minister and two Parliamentary Secretaries assist the Foreign Minister in his work.

The Secretary General is the principal official adviser to the Foreign Minister on matters relating to foreign policy and is responsible for the supervision and coordination of the Ministry as a whole. The Foreign Secretary is in charge of relating to all territories excepting those dealt with by the Commonwealth Secretary. The Commonwealth Secretary looks after the work pertaining to all the countries of the Commonwealth except Canada, South East Asia and Africa south of Sahara. The Special Secretary is in general charge of the administration of the Ministry and the Indian Missions abroad. In matters involving policy the Special Secretary works in close collaboration with the Foreign Secretary and the Commonwealth Secretary.

The three Secretaries together with the Secretary, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, constitute the Foreign Service Board which is responsible for all diplomatic, commercial and consular postings and transfers, promotions and confirmation of Foreign Service officers of Branch

A of the Indian Foreign Service and Grade I of the Indian Foreign Service (B).

<pg1>
<pg2>

For purposes of Administration the Ministry is divided into 14 main Divisions. Seven of these are Territorial Divisions which deal exclusively with India's relations with foreign countries, each Division dealing with a number of countries grouped on a geographical or a 'territorial' basis. There are five 'specialist' Divisions, which deal respectively with Protocol and Consular matters, Passports and Emigration, External Publicity, Historical Research, Legal matters and Treaties. These Divisions serve the Ministry as a whole. The Conference Division deals with all matters concerning the United Nations, and the Administration Division deals with all matters pertaining to administration, personnel and services and supplies.

(ii) Re-organisation of the methods of work and connected matters.- During the year under review, a continuous watch was kept on the methods of work introduced in the Ministry's Territorial Divisions after these Divisions were reorganised in 1958 with a view to achieving optimum efficiency and effecting economy.

By employing the techniques of analytical estimation and case studies.. a detailed work-study of the Passport and Visa Division, the Cash Branch and the Regional Passport Office, Calcutta, was undertaken to evolve Ways to minimise procedural tangles, increase the overall output and to assess staff strength. In all, the working of twelve Sections in the Ministry and two Regional Passport Offices was investigated with a view to simplifying methods of work and fixing their staff strength. In addition, fresh items of work were allotted to existing sections/units, and their staff strength was augmented by internal adjustment, wherever necessary. Efforts to simplify procedures were also continued.

The work study of the remaining three Regional Passport Offices is expected to be completed in the near future.

48 Quarterly and Annual inspections of Sections were instituted during the year, and the defects noticed were brought to the attention of the Sections concerned for rectification.

During the year the Special Secretary convened two special meetings of all the Officers in the Administration Division. At these meetings specific problems relating to administration, such as the preparation of running summaries of complicated issues and the rationalisation of subjects under which files are opened, were discussed. The Special Secretary also suggested that an extra effort should be made by Sections to modify the existing practice in respect of the opening of new files, index slips and the statement of issues outstanding for over a month in so far as it was at variance with the procedure laid down in the Manual of Office Procedure.

<pg3>

Besides this, seven meetings were convened by the joint Secretaries in charge of the Territorial Divisions. Steps were also taken to reduce the arrears in the disposal of primary receipts by keeping a watch over, Sections with heavy arrears and bringing them to the notice of their Directors.

During the year progress was made in the weeding of the old records of the Ministry. Records for the years 1941 to 1945 have been weeded. The weeding of the files for 1946 is in hand.

Assistance is also being given to other Sections in the Ministry in clearing arrears of recording and indexing and other work. In addition, the old records received from the defunct Deputy High Commission of India at Lahore and the Branch Secretariat at Calcutta were sorted out and recorded.

There was no change in the staff strength and functions of the Vigilance Unit. During the year the Unit dealt with 76 complaints, 17 disciplinary cases, and reviewed 3 cases. Of these 51 complaints, 3 disciplinary cases and 2 reviews were finally settled.

In order to promote efficiency and economy in the administration, the Economy Board, constituted in April 1958, continued to consider all proposals for the creation of posts, the continuance of temporary posts, and determining the rentals of residences of officials in Missions abroad. The Special Secretary is the Chairman of the Board which consists of two joint Secretaries and the Deputy Financial Adviser as Members with a Deputy Secretary in the Administration Division as its Member/Secretary. The Board held 29 meetings till the 31 December 1960 and considered 265 proposals.

Staff Welfare.-During the period the Ministry decided, in consultation with the Ministry of Works, Housing and Supply, to construct a Hostel consisting of 100 two-roomed and one-roomed flats to provide accommodation to officers and staff of this Ministry posted back to Headquarters on transfer from abroad.

The site at present occupied by the Constitution Club has been selected for this purpose.

(iii) Indian Foreign Service.-At present the permanent strength of the Indian Foreign Service is 211. In addition, there are 10 supernumerary posts and 95 temporary posts in various grades.

Excluding the 25 posts of Heads of Missions and Posts abroad which are filled by non-officials, the net permanent strength of the Indian Foreign Service for purposes of recruitment is 186 plus 10 supernumerary posts. Apart from a 10% reservation for promotion of officers of Grade I of the

<pg4>

Indian Foreign, Service (B) and of the Information Service, recruitment is made in the junior Scale of the Service, exclusively through an annual open competitive examination held by the Union Public Service Commission. Nine candidates were recruited in 1960 on the basis of the results of the examination held in 1959. Ten more candidates will be recruited in a similar manner in 1961.

INDIAN FOREIGN SERVICE 'B'

The initial constitution of all grades of the Indian Foreign Service (B) has been completed.

Pending the promulgation of the Maintenance, Recruitment and Training Rules of the service, 53 Assistants were recruited through the Union Public Service Commission; 9 stenographers were similarly appointed from amongst those declared successful at the Union Public Service Commission tests and 43 clerks were appointed through the Union Public Service Commission and the Directorate General Resettlement and Employment during the year.

Transfers, postings, confirmations, promotions, extension of service etc. of the officers of the Indian Foreign Service, of Grade I of Indian Foreign Service (B) and of the Information Service of India are made by a Foreign Service Board consisting of the Foreign Secretary, the Commonwealth Secretary, the Special Secretary and the Secretary, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, with the joint Secretary (Administration) acting as the Secretary of the Board. This Board also regulates the programme of training of Indian Foreign Service probationers. Transfers and postings of Indian Foreign Service (B) Officers, other than Grade I, are similarly decided by a Senior Establishment Board [consisting of the joint Secretary (Administration), the Director, External Publicity, a Deputy Secretary and an Under Secretary of the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, and with the Deputy Secretary (Administration) of the Ministry of External Affairs acting as Secretary of the Board]; and a junior Establishment Board [consisting of three Deputy Secretaries and an Under Secretary, with the Under Secretary (Foreign Service Personnel) acting as Secretary of the Board]. Confirmation, promotion and extension of service etc. in the Indian Foreign Service (B) officers are considered by two Departmental Promotion Committees. The Senior Departmental Promotion Committee consists of three joint Secretaries and a Deputy Secretary; and the junior Departmental Promotion Committee of three Deputy Secretaries and two Under Secretaries.

The permanent strength of the Indian Foreign Service 'B' is 1695. In addition there are 591 temporary posts in the various sub-cadres.

<pg5>

In pursuance of the Government's orders for the conversion of 80% of the temporary posts required for work of a permanent nature into permanent posts, subject to the condition that they have been in continuous existence for not less than three years, a review of the various grades of Indian Foreign Service and Indian Foreign Service 'B' has been made, and proposals have been referred to the Ministry of Finance.

The revised pay scales, 1960 as introduced by the Government of India (Ministry of Finance) are not automatically applicable to officers belonging to I.F.S. (A&B), IFAS and other miscellaneous staff borne on the strength of this Ministry. The question of applying the revised scales to these officers has since been examined in consultation with the Associated Finance and Establishment Divisions of that Ministry. Final orders On the subject are likely to be issued very shortly.

(iv) Missions Abroad.-At the beginning of the year 1960, there were 111 Indian Missions and Posts abroad:

Embassies	50	(Eight concurrently accredited without separate establishments).
High Commissions	10
Legations	6	(Five concurrently accredited without separate establishments).
Commissions	10
Trade Commissions	2
Consulates-General	17	(Two concurrently accredited without separate establishments).
Consulates	6
Vice Consulates	4
Special Missions	3
Agencies	3

In 1960, two separate Embassies were opened, one in the Congo and one at Helsinki. The Consulate General of India at Tananarive was converted into an Embassy, the Commission in Nigeria into a High Commission, and the Legations in Cuba and Jordan into Embassies, with the Indian Ambassadors at Washington and Baghdad respectively continuing to be concurrently accredited to them. Three Honorary Consulates-at Munich and Stuttgart in Germany and at Athens in Greece were also set up under the overall control of the Ambassadors in Germany and Yugoslavia respectively.

<pg6>

Much progress could not be made with the various construction programmes in Indian Missions abroad. In Accra (Ghana) when construction was about to start, the Ghanaian Government served notice for the resumption of the plot of land on which the Chancery Building was to be built. The High Commissioner has taken up the matter with the Government of Ghana. In Ankara (Turkey) all arrangements for the construction of the Ambassador's residence had been completed when the Turkish Government gave notice to stop construction on the ground that part of the site was in the security zone. The Ambassador has taken up the matter with the Turkish Government.

The construction of the Agency building at Gyantse remained suspended pending the settlement of the terms of the lease of the land, while, work on the Agency Building at Gartok has been held up due to a lack of construction facilities.

In Tokyo the construction of the Chancery Building is expected to begin shortly. A beginning may also be made with the construction of a ten-bed hospital at Kathmandu. The Government of India have also sanctioned the building of eight staff quarters there.

The Ambassador's residence at Vienna (Austria) was purchased during the year. Two proposals for purchase of property, one for building the residence of the High Commissioner at Lagos and the other for the Ambassador's residence in Vientiane are under consideration.

(v) Inspectorate.-In view of the shortage of suitable personnel and also because of the need to conserve foreign exchange, it was decided that the Foreign Service Inspectorate should be kept in abeyance for the present.

(vi) Expenditure.-The Expenditure of the Ministry falls under five Demand Heads; viz.

- (i) The Tribal Areas (North East Frontier Agency),
- (ii) The Naga Hills-Tuensang Area,
- (iii) External Affairs,
- (iv) Pondicherry and,
- (v) Miscellaneous.

According to the Revised Estimates, expenditure on them in 1960-61 is expected to be Rs. 29.94 crores.

<pg7>

Some of the items included therein do not however relate to External Relations proper. They are:-

	In crores of rupees.

<pg8>

The actual expenditure on the Ministry of External Affairs and the Embassies abroad amounts to Rs. 8.77 crores.

This includes:

- (i) Rs. 2.46 crores representing "Charges in England" comprising Rs. 0.78 crores on the High Commission in London, and

Rs. 1.68 crores on India's contribution to the United Nations Organisation for the United Nations Emergency Force at Gaza and United Nations forces in Congo.

(ii) Rs. 1.29 crores on Pay and Allowances of officers and staff and other expenses at Headquarters,

(iii) Rs. 0.23 crores for the Hospitality Grant of the Government of India, and

(iv) Rs. 0.18 crores on donations and relief measures in foreign countries.

8. The expenditure on our Missions and Posts abroad amounts to Rs. 4.63 crores, spread over 86 Missions. This works out to an average of Rs. 5.38 lakhs per Mission. Of this, an average of Rs. 1.41 lakhs per Mission is spent on the Pay and Allowances of officers, and Rs. 1.48 lakhs on the Pay and Allowances of the staff, Rs. 0.94 lakhs on offices and residential accommodation, and the balance on contingent and other expenditure.

The sanctioned Grant under 'Standing Charges', and the anticipated requirements for 1960-61 are indicated 'below, along with the corresponding figures of the Revised Estimates for 1959-60:-

(viii) Other Miscellaneous expenditure	40.56	76.11	1.74
(ix) Miscellaneous 'Loss by Exchange' & Expenditure on 'Pilgrimage beyond India'	2.94	2.91	2.91

The anticipated saving of Rs. 45.49 lakhs in the Revised Estimates for 1960-61, as compared to the sanctioned Grant is mainly due to transfer of the Contribution to United Nations Organisation from the India Circle to 'Charges in England' shown in Part II of the budget pending the settlement of the London local cadre scheme; counterbalanced by an increase in expenditure on the Assam Rifles, and on Administration in the North East Frontier Agency.

The comparative figures of the Revised Estimates for 1959-60 and 1960-61 show that in the current year there will be an increase in expenditure of Rs. 44.96 lakhs. This excess is mainly due to:-

- (i) An increase in expenditure on the Assam Rifles, on Administrative charges and development schemes in the North East Frontier Agency,
- (ii) An increase in expenditure at Headquarters due to the conversion of a large number of posts in External Publicity Division from temporary to permanent and the consequent transfer of expenditure on them and on allied items from Part-II to Part-I of the Budget Estimates, as well as provision required for implementing the Pay Commissions recommendations, and

(iii) An increase in the expenditure in Missions due to the same reason has for (ii) above.

<pg10>

The present strength of Officers and Establishment is as follows:-

	Officers		Establishment
	1959-60	1960-61	1959-60	1960-61

Development Wing	20	71

From 1 January 1960 to 30th September 1960 the Posts of 9 Section Officers (Gr. II & Gr. III), 16 Assistants, 10 U.D.Cs', 8 L.D.Cs', and 6 Steno-typists were abolished or kept in abeyance at Headquarters. The financial effect of this for the period is a saving of Rs. 30,990/-. The posts of 9 Lower Division Assistants, Upper Division Assistants, Supply Inspector and Political Interpreter, 5 Lower Division Assistants and 4 Grade IV staff, 1 Central Intelligence Officer Grade II 1 Civil Assistant Surgeon; Grade I, 1 Mechanical Engineer, 1 Sub-Treasury Officer, 1 Stenographer, 1 Driver, 5 Handymen, 1 Tractor Operator, 1 Agricultural Officer and 1 Assistant Agricultural Officer were kept in abeyance from Jan 01, 1960 to 31 March 1960 at the North East Frontier Agency. The financial effect of this for this period is a saving of Rs. 16,114/-.

One post of Messenger was kept in abeyance from 4 January 1960 to 31 March 1960 in one of our Missions effecting a saving for this period of Rs. 437/-. Two posts of Messengers were kept in abeyance for the whole financial year 1960-61, the net saving of which will be Rs. 5,484 and 78 nP.

In addition to the above, an economy of Rs. 95,490/- was effected on contingent expenditure for the period from 1 January 1960 to 30 September 1960.

<pg11>

(vii) Tribal Areas-the North East Frontier Agency.-The strength of the Indian Frontier Administrative Service was increased from 64 to 69 to meet the additional requirements for the administration of border areas. A Special Selection Board selected officers in January and February 1960. Of the existing 69 officers, 34 are serving in the North East Frontier Agency, 15 in the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area, 6 in Manipur, 6 in Ladakh, 2 in Tripura, 2 in the Ministry of External Affairs and one each in Tibet, Uttar Pradesh, Himachal Pradesh and the Border Roads Development Board.

The Assam Rifles is being strengthened and one more Battalion is being raised.

The law and order situation in the North East Frontier Agency generally remained satisfactory.

After the closure of the transit camp for the Tibetan refugees at Misamari in Assam on 31 July, 1960, a new camp was opened at Bhalukpung in the Kameng Frontier Division of the North East Frontier Agency to provide accommodation for about 2,000 refugees. A scheme for the rehabilitation of Tibetan refugees as agriculturists in the same Division of the North East Frontier Agency is being implemented., and other similar measures are being considered.

The Plan provision for 1960-61 is Rs. 164.94 lakhs.

Four more pre-extension National Extension Service Blocks were sanctioned. 483 acres of land were developed, and this is calculated to increase food production by over 300 tons. 107 minor irrigation channels were constructed on a subsidised basis. 2,185 improved agricultural tools and implements were supplied to cultivators at subsidised rates. Two more fish farms were started. The Veterinary staff treated 7,677 cases.

62 miles of roads, 25 miles of mule paths and 232 miles of porter tracks were constructed and 31 miles of roads and 30 miles of porter tracks were improved.

3,572 indoor and 1,84,760 outdoor patients were treated. 12,364 persons were inoculated and vaccinated. Eight more anti-malaria teams were constituted, raising the total to 44. Goitre and tuberculosis surveys were carried out.

Three Lower Primary Schools were converted into Middle Standard Schools, and one Middle Standard School was made into a High School. There are now 5 High, 14 Middle and 129 Lower Primary Schools in the Agency.

In the sphere of plantation and silviculture, preliminary work was done on 280 crores and the whole work completed on 287 acres. 37,369 sleepers for Broad Gauge, 79,201 for Metre Gauge and 2,283 for Narrow Gauge Railways were supplied. The forest revenue during the period was Rs. 22,24,559 and the expenditure Rs. 14,22,586.

<pg12>

Two booklets on Tangsa and Dafla tribes were published.

Five more co-operative general stores were established.

A new volume of Statistical Outline of the North East Frontier Agency was published.

(viii) The Naga Hills-Tuensang Area.-The law and order situation, continued to make progress.

A delegation of 15 Naga leaders came to Delhi on 24 July 1960, for discussions on the future administration of the Naga Hills. The Prime Minister met the delegation on 26 and 30 July, 1960. As a result of these discussions, it was agreed to, constitute the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area as, a separate State, to be called Nagaland, within the Indian Union. The Governor of Assam will also be the Governor of Nagaland; and the existing jurisdiction of the Assam High Court over the areas comprising, the new State will continue. During the transitional period, an Interim Body consisting of representatives of all the Naga tribes will be constituted to assist and advise the Governor in the administration of Nagaland. The Governor will have a special responsibility for law and order during the transitional period, and for so long as the law and order situation continues to remain disturbed due to hostile activities. He will also have general responsibility for ensuring that the funds made available by the Government of India are spent for the purposes for which they are approved.

A party of journalists, including foreign correspondents, visited the Naga Hills-Tuensang Area for a week in December.

All Naga tribes have completed elections to the Interim Body. The transitional arrangements are expected to come into force by the middle of February.

The Plan provision for 1960-61 is Rs. 158.27 lakhs.

53 miles of new roads were constructed and 113 miles of existing roads were widened and improved.

Generating sets were installed to provide electricity in four more towns.

Two new Hospitals were opened and two dispensaries were converted into Hospitals. 60 additional beds were provided in three of the existing Hospitals. About 75% of the total population was covered under the anti-malaria programme.

1400 acres of land were developed. 30 major and 172 minor irrigation channels were constructed.

Four Agricultural, seven Veterinary, two Forestry, seven Engineering, three Hindi and 435 general stipends for College students were awarded.

A. States In Special Treaty Relations With India

PART II

A. STATES IN SPECIAL TREATY RELATIONS WITH INDIA

(i) Bhutan.-Satisfactory progress is being made in the construction of the Phuntsoling-Paro Road under the supervision and control of the Technical Coordinating Board for Bhutan. A sum of Rs. 60 lakhs is likely to be spent during 1960-61.

Bhutan has undertaken other works which will develop her economy. The Government of India have granted Rs. 7 lakhs to Bhutan as developmental subsidy.

A delegation of five members of the Indian Parliament visited Bhutan in May 1960 for three weeks.

On the invitation of the Government of India, His Highness the Maharaja of Bhutan accompanied by a party of 17 others visited India during February 1961.

(ii) Sikkim.-Progress of the projects under the Seven Year Development Plan has been satisfactory. The current Plan will come to an end on 31 March 1961. The Sikkim Darbar are preparing their Second Development Plan which will coincide with India's Third Five Year Plan.

The Sikkim Mining Corporation has been established with an authorised capital of Rs. 1 crore for the purpose of exploiting copper deposits in the State. The Government of India and the Sikkim Darbar will share the capital outlay in the ratio of 49% and 51% respectively. The Government of India have also agreed to grant loans to the Sikkim Darbar to meet the cost of their share of the capital.

In conformity with the Government of India's decision to improve road communications in the border regions, the Border Road Development Board have taken up the construction of certain roads in Sikkim.

The project for the construction of a 12 1/2 mile aerial ropeway between Gangtok and the Sikkim Tibet border is nearing completion. A loan of Rs. 29 lakhs has so far been granted to Sikkim by the Government of India for this project.

Ten new scholarships for high school studies and 8 new scholarships for diploma and degree courses were granted to Sikkimese students for education in India.

The Maharaj Kumar of Sikkim participated in the XXV International Congress of Orientalists in Moscow in August 1960.

The Government of India have established a Printing Press at Gangtok primarily for printing Tibetan and Nepali material. Adequate facilities for this were previously not available in the area.

<pg13>

<pg14>

Arrangements were made for the supply of 73,000 lbs of skim milk powder from UNICEF allotments for the benefit of about 5,000 Sikkimese school children for twelve months beginning from August, 1960.

On the invitation of Government of India, His Highness the Maharaja of Sikkim accompanied by a party of 30 others visited India during January/February 1961.

B. FOREIGN ENCLAVES IN INDIA

(i) Goa, Daman and Diu.-In accordance with the Government of India's policy of not using force for the liberation of these possessions, the Goan political parties are continuing their efforts to liberate these territories by peaceful and non-violent means. The Government have also reviewed their policy towards the Portuguese possessions in India in order to ensure the early achievement of this objective.

Shri Mohan Laxman Ranade, the only Indian political worker who is still imprisoned in Goa, is reported to have been deported to Portugal sometime during September 1960. However, confirmation of this news is still awaited.

The judgement in the 'Right of Passage Case' filed by Portugal against India was delivered by the International Court of justice at The Hague on Apr 12, 1960. The verdict of the Court was substantially in India's favour. The Court has held that India acted correctly and in accordance with her international obligations. A significant aspect of the Court's decision is that there can be no question of India being obliged to permit passage of any kind in the present circumstances. In other words, the present position in Dadra and Nagar-Aveli has been stabilised and cannot change without the permission of the Government of India. The Government are generally satisfied with the decision of the Court in this case.

In response to requests from the Varishta Panchayat and the Administrator of Nagar-Aveli, Dr. A. Furtado, who proposed to resign, the Government of India agreed to make available the services of a senior officer of the Indian Administrative Service as the Administrator of those areas. Shri K. G. Badlani took over as the new Administrator with effect from 17 October 1960. It is also proposed to elect a new Panchayat to replace the present Panchayat which consists of nominees. This new Panchayat would act as the Legislative Council of the liberated areas.

It is proposed to extend technical assistance to the independent administration of Dadra and Nagar-Aveli for developmental and other reconstruction activities and gradually to bring the administration of these areas in line with the administrative pattern in the rest of the country over a period of time.

The Pensions Disbursement Officer of the Government of India, Pension office, Margao, continued to visit Goa periodically for the disbursement of pensions. Most of the arrears of pensions have been cleared during the period under review. He was till now visited Goa seven times. The eighth visit is due shortly.

<pg15>

Portuguese aircraft were reported again to have violated Indian air space near Daman and Diu. There were also a few instances of border violations by the Portuguese.

Trade with Goa continued to be restricted during the period under review. A proposal to relax the existing restrictions is under study. A unified control of the Indo-Goa border has been entrusted to the State Reserve Police Forces (of Maharashtra & Gujrat) in order to check smuggling effectively. Baggage Rules for travellers proceeding to and coming from Goa have been revised and greatly simplified with effect from 1 October 1960. Travel between India and Goa has been liberalised for Indians as well as Goans. Besides Majali which was the only check-post for entry and exit between India and Goa, two additional routes at Lakkarkot and Anmode have been opened with effect from 1 October 1960. But though the Government of India declared these two additional land routes open with effect from 1 October 1960, regular traffic has not yet commenced via these routes as the Portuguese authorities have not yet provided corresponding facilities for passengers on their side of the border.

(ii) Pondicherry, Karaikal, Yanam and Mahe.-The Government of France have not as yet found it possible to ratify the Treaty of Cession of the French Establishments of Pondicherry, Karaikal, Yanam and Mahe. According to the Budget Estimates for 1960-61, the revenue was Rs. 163 lakhs. In the Revised Estimates for the current financial year, revenues are estimated at about Rs. 193 lakhs, i.e., an increase of Rs. 30 lakhs. The provision under the head of Expenditure in the Budget Estimates for the current year was Rs. 343 lakhs including expenditure on Plan schemes of the order of Rs. 146 lakhs. According to the Revised Estimates, the overall expenditure is estimated at Rs. 331 lakhs and the estimated expenditure on Plan schemes is Rs. 126 lakhs. The estimated revenues for the year 1961-62 is about Rs. 228 lakhs, and estimated expenditure is Rs. 432 lakhs. The total expenditure for all development schemes, including the Medical College, during the Third Five Year Plan period is estimated at about Rs. 10 crores.

Suitable measures are being taken to replace appeals to courts in Paris by appeals to appropriate courts in India from courts in Pondicherry.

Steps are being taken in Pondicherry to implement the recommendations of the Central Wage Board for the Cotton Textile Industry.

A Commission has been appointed by the Chief Commissioner of Pondicherry, to implement the decision regarding the conversion of 50% of the temporary posts in Pondicherry Administration into permanent ones. The posts will be chosen from those which have been in existence for more than three years and are required on a long term basis.

143 E.A.-3.

Steps are being taken to implement the revised scales of pay in Pondicherry State with effect from 1 June 1960 on the analogy of scales adopted by the Government of Madras on the recommendations of the Madras Pay Commission.

Owing to unprecedented rainfall during November 1960, large areas of Pondicherry and Karaikal were inundated and considerable damage was caused to huts, dwellings and standing crops. The Government have sanctioned a sum not exceeding Rs. 3 lakhs for relief measures in the affected areas.

C. INDIA'S NEIGHBOURS

(i) Afghanistan.-During the year under review close and friendly relations between India and Afghanistan continued to develop undisturbed. An Indian Trade Delegation led by Shri K. R. F. Khilnani, joint Secretary in the Ministry of Commerce & Industry visited Afghanistan in September-October 1960 and concluded a trade agreement with the Government of Afghanistan for the current year. A further increase in Indo-Afghan trade to the mutual benefit of both the countries is envisaged. The Afghan Purchase Mission, now known as the Directorate General of Supplies of Afghanistan has been functioning in India for some time past. The Mission is engaged in the purchase and despatch of goods required in Afghanistan and Government have extended it necessary assistance.

As usual, India participated in Afghan Jashan Celebrations held at Kabul in August 1960. The Government representative on the Indian delegation was Shri Jamal Khwaja, M.P. The contingent included a Services hockey team, student tennis players, Kathak dancers, folk singers and their accompanists.

The aeronautical and meteorological facilities provided by the Government of India at Kabul and Kandahar air ports continued during the year. The Indian team of three members was in Afghanistan for the major part of the year. The twenty Afghan cadets, who were under training in the Flight Mechanic Airframe and Flight Mechanic Engine courses in I.A.F. establishments in India, left for Afghanistan after completion of their courses in April 1960. Two vacancies were made available to the Government of Afghanistan for training in the Radio Technicians' Course at the Civil Aviation Training Centre, Allahabad, but the Afghan Government could send only one person, and he also had to return to Afghanistan for reasons of health. Dr. Abdul Wahab Malikyar, President of the Community Development Organisation in Afghanistan came to India in September-October 1960 and visited various centres in Delhi and Kashmir. General Mohamed Naim Waziri, Inspector General of the Afghan Army, visited India in January 1960. The head of the Faculty of Science of the Kabul University has been invited to visit the atomic reactor at Bombay and discuss technical matters with Indian scientists.

<pg17>

The Government of India sent two instructors to Afghanistan for about three months to train Afghans in the working and handling of Ambar Charkhas presented to that Government in 1958. In addition to the seven Indian teachers, who were already in Afghanistan teaching English in various schools, six more teachers were selected during the year under report. Of these six teachers, one has already joined service in Afghanistan and arrangements to send the remaining teachers are in hand. The contract of the Indian hockey coach has been renewed for another period of two years. The Indian Brass Band Instructor, who was on deputation to the Government of Afghanistan for two years, returned to India during the year after completion of his period of contract. At the request of Kabul Radio, the services of a Programme Executive of the All India Radio were placed at the disposal of the Government of Afghanistan in April 1960 initially for a period of three months. At the request of Afghan Government, the period of his deputation was extended by another three months. Shri L. C. Gupta, an Industrial Co-operative Expert in Afghanistan has submitted a scheme for the development of Art Wood Industry in Afghanistan and this is being examined in consultation with the Ministries of Works, Housing and Supply and of Commerce & Industry. The Government of Afghanistan have approached the Government of India for the services of two masons to train Afghans in cement flooring etc. Efforts are being made to send the masons.

The Government of India had earlier supplied fumigation equipment to the Government of Afghanistan as a gift. A chamber is now proposed to be installed by an Indian engineer deputed to Afghanistan for the purpose. The Government of India supplied as a free gift 16 1/2 tons of sugar-cane seed material for plantation purposes in Afghanistan and two tons of bleaching powder to help the Afghan Government fight a cholera epidemic.

Shri J. N. Dhamija, the new Ambassador to Kabul, presented his credentials to H.M. the King of Afghanistan on 3 August 1960. Shri S. Parakash replaced Shri A. K. Bakshi as Vice Consul at Kandahar in September 1960.

A draft agreement for establishing a direct Radio Telephone service between India and Afghanistan has been finalised and the agreement will be signed at Kabul in the near future.

(ii) Burma.-Relations with Burma continued to be close and cordial.

U Nu came to India in March 1960 on a pilgrimage on the eve of his election as Prime Minister.

He came again to New Delhi on 11 November 1960 on an official visit and left India for Rangoon on 21 November 1960.

<pg18>

The Chief of Naval Staff, Admiral Katari, visited Rangoon in July 1960 on a goodwill mission.

As in previous years, a number of Burmese personnel received military and technical training in India.

The Burmese Government extended their hospitality to the Indian and Chinese official teams, who were examining the material relating to, the Boundary Question, for the third Session of their talks. The officials met at Rangoon in November-December 1960.

(iii) Ceylon.-Relations with Ceylon continued to be friendly and, cordial.

Shri V. K. Krishna Menon, Defence Minister, visited Ceylon in September 1960 and addressed a meeting of the Ceylon Institute of World Affairs.

Shrimati Lakshmi Menon, Deputy Minister of External Affairs, paid a visit to Ceylon in September 1960 on an invitation from the Family Planning Association of Ceylon.

The Government of India complied with a number of requests from the Government of Ceylon for training of Ceylon nationals in the Armed Services and in various fields of education.

The Hon'ble Sirimavo R. D. Bandaranaike, Prime Minister of Ceylon, arrived at New Delhi on 29th December, 1960 on a visit at the invitation of the Government of India.

(iv) China.- (See under East Asia).

(v) Nepal.-Relations with Nepal continued to remain close and friendly. The most significant event of the year under review was the signing of the Treaty of Trade and Transit with Nepal on 11th September 1960. This treaty which has replaced the Treaty of Trade & Commerce between the two countries of 31 July 1950 came into force on 1st November 1960. It will be in force for five years, and continue in force for a further period of five years thereafter, subject to such modification as may be agreed upon, unless terminated by either party by giving notice of not less than one year in writing. The Treaty has been widely acclaimed in Nepal.

Other important events were the visits to India of H.M. the King of Nepal and the former Prime Minister, Shri B. P. Koirala in 1960. These visits further strengthened the manifold ties of friendship and goodwill between the two countries.

Under a cultural programme, eminent Indian musicians and poets visited Kathmandu on the occasion of the Republic Day, Independence

<pg19>

Day and Gandhi jayanti. These visits stimulated interest in Indian music in that country and made clear the affinity between arts and cultures of the two countries.

After discussions, the Government of India announced the grant of additional economic aid of Rs. 18 crores to Nepal. Aid was continued to the Government of Nepal in their economic development programme. The notable fields in which assistance has been extended to Nepal during the year, under agreements executed with the Government of Nepal, were:

Name of the Scheme	Amount	Date of agreement
	Rs.
1. Horticulture	25,00,000
2. Veterinary	25,00,000
3. Industrial Estates	18,00,000	31 August, 1960.
4. Forests	15,00,000
5. Engineering School	8,50,000
6. National Archives	6,50,000	17 October, 1960
7. Tribhuvan University	20,00,000

The Prime Minister of India made a statement in the Lok Sabha that India would regard any aggression on Nepal as aggression on India.

Shri Harishwar Dayal, presented his credentials as Ambassador of India in Nepal on 1st February, 1960.

(vi) Pakistan.-

(a) Prime Minister's visit to Pakistan.-At the invitation of the President of Pakistan, the Prime Minister visited Pakistan from 19th to 23rd September 1960. The Prime Minister signed, on behalf of India, the Indus Waters Treaty in Karachi on 19th September 1960. In the course of his stay in Pakistan, he visited Murree, Nathiagali, Rawalpindi and Lahore. The two leaders discussed matters affecting Indo-Pakistan relations, and exchanged informally views on current international questions. The two leaders expressed the conviction that the primary need of their countries was the rapid development of their resources and the raising of the living standards of their people. They agreed that their Governments and people should work for the promotion of friendly and co-operative relations between the two countries and eliminate old emotional strains and tensions. Other matters agreed to between the two leaders are dealt with under respective headings later in this report.

(b) The Indus Waters Treaty.-The 12 years old canal water dispute came to an end with the signing of the Indus Waters Treaty, 1960, by the

<pg20>

Prime Minister of India and the President of Pakistan on 19th September 1960 at Karachi. The Treaty, as it finally emerged after the difficult and protracted negotiations, through the good offices of the World Bank, consists of 12 Articles and 8 Annexures. The salient features of the Treaty are as follows:

(1) The waters of the Indus, Jhelum and Chenab, except for essential uses in their own basins while they flow in India, are allotted to Pakistan; and the waters of the Ravi, Beas and Sutlej, except for a transition period during which Pakistan will build works to replace the waters received by it from these rivers, are allotted to India.

(2) India has guaranteed to let flow for all time to come the waters of the Indus, Jhelum and Chenab to Pakistan, except for certain uses in Indian territory to be made in accordance with detailed regulations specified in the Treaty.

(3) India will continue to give water from the Sutlej, Beas and Ravi, allotted to her under the Treaty, to Pakistan during the transition period only and at a diminishing scale. The transition period will be 10 years. This period may be extended for a further period of three years, at Pakistan's request, but the extension is subject to reduction in the Indian contribution towards Pakistan's replacement works.

(4) Pakistan has undertaken on the Western rivers a comprehensive system of replacement-cum-development works comprising storage reservoirs, barrages, link canals, tube-well drainage and hydroelectric installations. As the purposes of the part of this system of works is the replacement from the Western rivers of water supplies for irrigation canals in Pakistan which were dependent on water supplies from the Eastern rivers, India has agreed to make a fixed contribution of Rs. 83.3 crores towards the cost of the replacement element of these works. The United States of America, Britain, Canada, West Germany, Australia, and New Zealand and the World Bank are financing the remaining cost of this large plan of works. This arrangement falls outside the Treaty. Their aid to Pakistan will aggregate to Rs. 333.3 crores. The U.S. Government and the Bank have agreed to lend India Rs. 26.7 crores for the construction of the Beas Dam.

(5) The Treaty provides for a permanent Indus Commission to serve as a regular channel of communication on all matters relating to the implementation of the Treaty.

(6) The Treaty also provides for a neutral expert and a court of arbitration to settle disputes.

(7) The Treaty terminates the Indo-Pakistan Water Agreement of 1948, under which canal waters were regulated from India to Pakistan uptill now.

<pg21>

(c) Indo-Pakistan Border Conferences.- (i) In pursuance of the decision reached at the Indo-Pakistan Eastern Border Conference of October 1959, a Conference at Minister's level was held at Lahore, Rawalpindi and New Delhi from 4th to 11th January 1960. Sardar Swaran Singh, Minister for Steel, Mines, and Fuel, represented India and Lieutenant-General K. M. Sheikh, Minister of the Interior, represented Pakistan. The Conference resulted in the following settlements of border disputes on the Punjab-West Pakistan border:-

- (1) Pakistan agreed that the boundary in the region of the Hus-sainiwala Headworks would be the district boundary between Ferozepore and Lahore districts.
- (2) India agreed to an adjustment, in the region of Suleimanki Headworks, of the district boundary between Ferozepore district and Montgomery district.
- (3) Pakistan dropped their claim to Chak Ladheke on the Amritsar-Lahore border.
- (4) India dropped her claim to the three villages of Theh Sarja Marja, Rakh Hardit Singh and Pathanke on the Amritsar-Lahore border.
- (5) Formulation of detailed "Ground Rules" for the Indo-West Pakistan border to ensure that local officials, civil and military, on both sides prevent, or when unavoidable control, border incidents.

The Conference also decided to study further the relevant material on the dispute in the Kutch-Sind region, and to hold discussions later for a settlement of this dispute.

(2) During the discussions between the Prime Minister of India and the President of Pakistan in September 1960, it was agreed that a Conference at Minister's level between India and Pakistan should be held to review the implementation of the border agreements already reached and to resolve outstanding differences on border matters

(d) Border incidents.-The settlement of the border disputes on the Indo-East Pakistan border and on the Punjab-West Pakistan border had a salutary effect on incidents on these borders. There were no incidents of firing across the border by Border Forces, which had been a frequent occurrence in previous years. Such border incidents as took place were mostly in the nature of dacoity, lifting of cattle, and forcible harvesting of paddy from lands belonging to Indian nationals.

(e) implementation of the Indo-Pakistan Border Agreements of September 1958, October 1959 and January 1960.-The Supreme Court of India gave its Advisory Opinion in March 1960 on the Reference made by the President of India on the legal and constitutional measures necessary for the implementation of the settlement on the Berubari Union No. 12 and the Cooch-Bihar Enclaves envisaged in the Indo-Pakistan Agreement of September 1958. Necessary legislation, in the light of this opinion, to implement the Indo-Pakistan Agreements of September 1958, October 1959, and January 1960, was completed in the winter session of Parliament. The Constitution (Ninth Amendment) Act, 1960, provides legislative cover for the transfer of certain areas to Pakistan: and the Acquired Territories (Merger) Act, 1960, provides for the merger into the respective States of India of areas that are to be transferred from Pakistan.

(f) Demarcation of boundaries.- (1) Ground demarcation on the Punjab-West Pakistan sector (342 miles) was completed in 1960.

(2) Demarcation in the Rajasthan-West Pakistan sector (644 miles) commenced in October 1959. By March 1960, ground demarcation was completed for roughly one-sixth of this border. Work was resumed in October 1960, and is in progress.

(3) On the Indo-East Pakistan border (2520 miles) ground demarcation was completed for roughly three-fifths of the border upto 30th June 1960. Further work is in progress.

(g) Kashmir.-During his visit to Pakistan in September 1960, the Prime Minister had a frank and friendly exchange of views with the President of Pakistan with regard to Kashmir. The talks were conducted in an atmosphere of cordiality. The two leaders came to the conclusion that this difficult question required careful consideration of all aspects. The President and the Prime Minister agreed to give further thought to this question with a view to finding a solution. Some of the aspects which require consideration are Pakistan aggression, the far-reaching changes which have taken place in that part of Kashmir which is administered by its lawful Government in the Indian Union, viz. the two general elections, the powers of a democratically elected Assembly, the degree of stability and progress achieved which have a direct bearing on the happiness and welfare of the people, the importance of avoiding upheavals, lest there should be migration or other undesirable consequences, and the need for deeper friendliness and goodwill which would put an end to suspicion and anger between the two countries, thus making it easier to bring about a permanent settlement of this problem.

On 29th February 1960, six Indian armed personnel who had inadvertently crossed the cease-fire line in Kashmir were exchanged with six Pakistanis at Wagah. Subversion and sabotage, organised from Pakistan, claimed four lives besides inflicting injuries on 12 persons. Three saboteurs from Pakistan-occupied Kashmir were arrested. The border police intercepted 254 infiltrators from Pakistan/Pakistan occupied Kashmir. The Pakistan armed forces also figured in several breaches of the cease-fire agreement.

(h) Financial matters.-Indo-Pakistan negotiations to settle various outstanding financial issues, resumed in July-August 1959, continued during the current year at Ministers' as well as officials' level. The two Finance Ministers met twice during the year in Rawalpindi in March and in New Delhi in November. Efforts were made to evaluate the assets and liabilities, of the undivided Central Government and divided Provinces and their allocation between the two Governments on the lines settled at the time of partition. Some major items remained unresolved. These included the valuation and allocation of certain Defence assets, the determination of the amount of income tax arrears at the time of partition, including the unassessed income on that date which might have come in for subsequent assessment and the valuation of the pensionary liability. The two Finance Ministers have decided to meet again in the near future to find an agreed answer to the outstanding problems.

(i) Trade.-The Indo-Pakistan Trade Agreement (1957-60) expired on 31 January 1960. A fresh Trade Agreement, together with two Protocols, was signed on 21 March 1960. The two Governments accepted the principle that Indo-Pakistan trade should be expanded in the context of the expanding economies of the two countries. Under the new Trade Agreement the main items of exports from Pakistan are raw cotton, Rs. 1.5 Crores and jute cuttings, Rs. 1 Crore; main items of export from India are cement Rs. 1.5 Crores, iron and steel Rs. 1 Crore and coal 1,30,000 tons, per month.

A conference to review the working of the Trade Agreement and in particular the Special Payments Agreement connected with the same was held in Karachi from 24 to 26 November 1960. It was agreed at the review to add a few items to the export list on either side and to ensure a strict implementation of the Agreement.

At the discussions between the Prime Minister and the President of Pakistan in September, 1960, it was agreed that the two countries should explore possibilities of increasing trade and economic exchanges and examine the need for opening new offices to further this objective.

(j) Evacuee Property.-

(1) Movable.-The deadlock of previous years in the implementation of the measures already agreed to by India and Pakistan for settling the various items under the Movable Property Agreement of June 1950, continued during the year. Important items which have been left unresolved so far, relate to the transfer of lockers and safe deposits of evacuees lying with banks, the assets of joint Stock Companies and the status of displaced banks. It was agreed at the discussions between the Prime Minister and the President of Pakistan in September 1960, that an early meeting of the Implementation Committee under the Movable Property Agreement, which was to ensure speedy implementation of the decisions taken, should be held. Accordingly, a meeting of the Committee was held in New Delhi on 29th and 30th November 1960. This meeting reviewed progress made in the implementation of the agreement since the last meeting held in New Delhi, in April 1958. Both sides agreed that settlement of outstanding matters should be expedited and every endeavour made to restore the movable assets of displaced persons. The next meeting of the Committee is to be held in Rawalpindi on 17th and 18th January 1961.

143 E.A.-4.

(2) Immovable.-No progress was made in the matter of an agreement on Immovable Property of evacuees. According to Indian estimates, Rs. 500 crores worth of evacuee urban property was left in Pakistan by refugees who migrated to India, and Rs. 100 crores worth of such property in India by refugees who migrated to Pakistan.

The Government of East Pakistan have not yet paid compensation/ arrears of rent to Indian landlords whose immovable properties were acquired or requisitioned by them although a recommendation that such payment be given was made by the Land Revenue Commission as early as 8 July 1959.

(k) Co-operation in the rivers in the Eastern Zone of India and Pakistan.-Irrigation experts of India and Pakistan held two meetings in New Delhi and Dacca in June-July and October, respectively, to whatever data was available on projects of mutual interest to the two countries on the rivers in the Eastern Zone. At these meetings the Project Reports and river discharge data of the Indian Ganga Barrage Project for the preservation of the port of Calcutta and Pakistan's Ganga-Kobadak Project, including the Khulna multi-purpose scheme, were exchanged. It was also agreed to exchange later more detailed data on these and the Indian and Pakistan projects on the Tista.

The Government of India have already assured the Government of Pakistan that they will raise no objection to Pakistan's Karnafuli Project on consideration of the resulting submergence of some areas in India. Negotiations on the claims of the Government of India regarding the loss caused by the flooding of Indian Territory by this project in Pakistan are to commence when survey of the area has been completed.

(1) Shrines and Holy Places.-No progress was made in the matter of holding a meeting of the Indo-Pakistan joint Committee on Shrines and Holy Places, as the Pakistan Government have yet to indicate their willingness to hold this meeting.

During the year 1960, 16 officially sponsored pilgrim parties from West Pakistan, comprising 1826 Muslim pilgrims, visited shrines in <pg25>

India and 9 officially sponsored pilgrim parties from India, comprising 1,463 pilgrims, visited Shrines in West Pakistan.

(m) Minorities in Pakistan.-Despite certain fundamental rights guaranteed to the minorities of both countries under the Inter-Dominion Agreement of 1948 and the Pinme Ministers Agreement of 1950, the year under review did not show any improvement in the well-being of the Hindu Minority in Pakistan. As in previous years, a number of offences against property and person of the members of the minority community in East Pakistan came to notice.

Migration of Hindus from East Pakistan to India showed an upward trend as compared with the previous year, the figures for 1960 up to the end of November being 8,858 as against 6,438 for 1959.

(n) Passport and Visa Rules.-In pursuance of the decision taken at the Indo-Pakistan Conference at Minister level held in October, 1959, the Indian High Commissioner at Karachi raised with the Pakistan Government the question of starting bilateral discussions for the liberalisation of passport and visa rules for travel between India and Pakistan. The Government of Pakistan, however, have not shown any readiness to hold discussions on this question.

From October 1960, the Government of Pakistan have stopped permitting Pakistanis from visiting India ordinarily more than once a year. This has had the effect of reducing the frequency of visitors from Pakistan to India, and has also led to hardship among the Hindus, in East Pakistan many of whom periodically visited their relations in India. The Government of Pakistan also announced in October 1960, that they had simplified the procedure for registration and reporting to the Police for Indian visitors to Pakistan. These relaxations have, however, not yet been put into effect.

(o) Relief Assistance to victims of Cyclone in East Pakistan.-A gift of ready made clothing and of medicines of the value of Rs. 25,000 was made to the East Pakistan authorities for relief of victims of cyclones in East Pakistan.

The Government of India have also agreed, at the request of the Pakistan authorities, for rehabilitation of the victims of the cyclones, notwithstanding shortages in India, to export,

(1) 1,000 tons of galvanised corrugated sheets,

(2) Rs. 17 lakhs worth of bamboos from Tripura.

(3) 36,000 tons of slack coal for burning bricks.

The Indian Railways have also agreed to facilitate the quick movement of 10,000 cattle from West Pakistan to East Pakistan to make good the severe damage done to the cattle, wealth of East Pakistan by the cyclones.
<pg26>

D. SOUTH EAST ASIA, AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

Relation between India and the countries in South East Asia, Australia and New Zealand continued to be cordial and friendly.

(i) Indo-China States.-On the recommendations of the President, after his visit to Indo-China, the Government of India decided, as a token of goodwill, to make a gift of 366 rain gauges and 549 measuring glasses for the development of the Mekong River Basin (for the joint benefit of Thailand, Laos, Cambodia, and the Republic of Vietnam). The supply of the instruments was completed in 1960.

Cambodia.-50 Cows and 8 bulls were presented to the Cambodian Government in July, 1960. A consignment of agricultural implements was presented to the Government of Cambodia in response to a request from them.

Laos.-With a view to a return to peace and law and order in Laos, where civil strife threatened to spread, the Prime Minister appealed to, the Co-Chairmen of the Geneva Conference for a revival of the International Commission for Supervision & Control in Laos.

International Commission.-The International Commission for Supervision and Control in Vietnam continued to exercise its responsibilities to maintain peace in the area during the period under review.

On the basis of the recommendations of the Co-Chairmen of the Geneva Conference, it was decided to reduce substantially the strength of the Commissions for Supervision and Control in Vietnam and Cambodia.

(ii) Indonesia.-President Sukarno came to India in April 1960, on an unofficial visit, en route to Iraq. Major General Gatot Subroto, Deputy Chief of Army Staff of the Indonesian Army visited India in April, 1960 on a goodwill mission.

Dr. Djuanda Kartawidjaja, First Minister of Indonesia, accompanied by his wife, visited India in June, 1960.

The Chief of the Naval Staff, Admiral Katari, visited Indonesia in July, 1960 on a goodwill mission.

An Army Agreement between the Governments of India and Indonesia was signed at Djakarta on 3 June, 1960. It provides for co-operation between the armies of the two countries for their mutual benefit.

General A. H. Nasution, Minister for National Security and Chief of the Army Staff of Indonesia visited India officially arriving on 7th January, 1961. He left India for Pakistan on 10th January, 1961.

<pg27>

(iii) Thailand.-The Chief of Naval Staff, admiral Katari, visited Thailand in July, 1960 on a goodwill mission.

(iv) Malaya.-The Chief of the Naval Staff, Admiral Katari, visited Malaya in June-July 1960 on a goodwill mission. The Chief of General Staff, Lt. General L. P. Sen, visited Malaya in July-August 1960, on a goodwill mission.

As in previous years a number of Malayan Military personnel were trained in India and several Malayan Students were admitted to Medical and other colleges in India.

(v) New Zealand.-The Hon'ble Mr. E. T. Tirkatene, Minister of Forests, accompanied by his wife, visited India in February, 1960, to attend the 5th Session of the Asian and Pacific Forestry Commission and the 3rd Session of the Teak Sub-Commission in New Delhi.

(vi) Philippines.-H. E. Mr. Diosdado Macapagal, Vice-President, accompanied by his wife, visited India in April-May, 1960 on a goodwill tour on his way back from Europe.

Mr. Fruetuose Cabahug, Under Secretary Foreign Affairs, visited India in February 1960.

(vii) Singapore.-The Chief of Naval Staff, Admiral Katari, visited Singapore in June-July, 1960 on a goodwill mission,

The Chief of General Staff, Lt. General L. P. Sen, visited Singapore in July-August 1960 on a goodwill mission.

E. EAST ASIA

(i) China.-During the year under review boundary disputes between India and China remained unresolved. China continued to remain in occupation of large areas of Indian Territory and to bring forward claims to other areas which had traditionally been part of India. The Government of India remained steadfast on their position that the frontiers of India, which are based on geographical features supported by tradition and custom, had long been clear and required no further definition. A series of meetings were held in Delhi between the Prime Ministers of India and China from 10 to 25 April, 1960, to discuss these differences. The two Prime Ministers agreed that the officials of the two Governments should meet to examine the factual material in the possession of the two Governments on which each side relied for support of its stand. It was also agreed that for the duration of these talks every effort should be made by the two parties to avoid friction and clashes in the border areas.

In pursuance of this directive, teams of officials of the two Governments held meetings spread over three sessions in Peking, Delhi and Rangoon, respectively during the period June-December 1960. The report was signed by the officials of two governments on 12 December, 1960, and has since been submitted to the two Governments. The Government of India are now examining the report to consider further action, on the question.

Notwithstanding the agreement reached at the conclusion of the Prime Ministers meeting, a number of instances of violations of Indian air and ground-space along the Sino-Indian boundary came to the attention of the Government of India. Prompt protests were made to the Chinese Government against these violations. Necessary precautions were taken to strengthen the security of the border to prevent any-wilful violations of the Indian frontier.

Difficulties encountered by Indian representatives and traders in Tibet did not materially decrease and the provisions of the 1954 Agreement were not, fully observed. Indian traders continued to suffer-difficulties because of the lack of facilities to repatriate their legitimate profits after the Indian and Tibetan currency were declared as illegal tender. Instances of harassment of and discrimination against Indian, nationals were also reported. In the early part of the year, the Kashmiri Muslims residing in Lhasa and neighbouring regions were subjected to severe hardship and intimidation but it was gratifying to note that they were eventually permitted to return to India. All these difficulties were brought to the attention of the Chinese Government through official notes and memoranda. Official correspondence exchanged with the Chinese Government since March 1960 was published in White Paper No. IV and presented to Parliament on 14th November 1960.

During the year under report the Government of India were obliged to take action under the Foreigners Act against a number of Chinese Nationals who were indulging in anti-Indian activities on Indian soil.

Notwithstanding these unfortunate features the Government of India remained firm in their belief that friendly relations between the two countries are vital to the peace of Asia and the World India continued to support the request for seating the representatives of the People's Republic of China in the United Nations and continued to entertain the hope that the relations between the two countries could by persistent endeavours be restored to those of true understanding and mutual respect for each other's sovereignty and non-interference in each other's internal affairs.

Tibetan refugees continued to arrive during the year and their total number rose to 25,000. About 17,000 refugees have been dispersed from transit camps and temporarily provided with work. The Missamari camp has been closed down. A transit camp at Bhalukpong in NEFA was started and 1,800 refugees accommodated there, The Buxa camp now accommodates about 1,500 student lamas. An equal number of old and infirm monks are accommodated at Dalhousie. A handicrafts training-cum-production centre was established at Dalhousie and employs 600 skilled Tibetan refugee craftsmen. A selfhelp centre consisting of about 200 Tibetan refugees is functioning at Darjeeling. 100 Tibetan refugees have been sent for training in small scale industries to centres at various places in India.

A residential school which will eventually accommodate 500 Tibetan refugee children has been opened at Mussoorie. Efforts are being made to establish other similar institutions elsewhere.

A land settlement scheme expected to provide for 500 refugees has been started at Bhalukpong in NEFA. The Mysore Government have offered facilities for the settlement of 3,000 refugees on land in their State. About 1,200 refugees are expected to be rehabilitated on land in Ladakh.

(ii) Japan.-Indo-Japanese relations not only remained close and friendly but were further strengthened by the visit to India of Japan's Crown Prince and Crown Princess during December, 1960. Shri Lalji Mehrotra, presented his credentials as Ambassador on 29th July, 1960.

F. WEST ASIA

India's close and friendly relations with West Asian countries happily developed further, and were again marked by close co-operation in different political and economic matters. In the cultural field, three troupes of leading Indian dancers and musicians gave performances in the different Arab States. Grants-in-aid were given to prominent institutions interested in promoting better cultural understanding between India and the countries of West Asia. Books were presented to some libraries and institutes in these countries, and the Government of India also offered as in the past years, scholarships for students coming from them. Private students who wished to join our educational institutions or to undertake study tours to various agricultural and scientific centres, were provided with all possible facilities.

(i) Iran.-Tea, blankets and textiles worth approximately Rs. 8,500 were sent for the relief of the victims of the earthquake in Lar in South Iran.

The Government of India agreed at the request of the Government of Iran to divert to Iran 70,000 tons of American wheat consigned to India in order to help the Government of Iran face the acute shortage of foodgrains caused by late rains in that country. G. AFRICA

Relations between India and the independent countries in Africa generally continued to be cordial during 1960. There was, however, no improvement in India's relation with South Africa because of the latter's vigorous pursuit of a policy of apartheid. A large number of countries in West, Central and other parts of Africa attained independence during this year. The vast continent of Africa is rapidly achieving freedom from decades of colonial domination and its States are at last rightly taking their place in the comity of nations.

(i) Algeria.-India joined a number of other Afro-Asian countries in proposing that the question of Algeria should be included in the agenda of the 15th Session of the U.N. General Assembly. The Indian delegation also co-sponsored the Afro-Asian resolution which was moved at the Assembly Session and accepted in part,

(ii) Morocco.-Shri P. S. Subramanian, Deputy Election Commissioner of India was deputed to Morocco at the request of the Government of Morocco to assist in organising local elections.

The Government of India sent medicines worth Rs. 50,000 for the relief of the victims of the earthquake in Agadir.

An Indian delegation visited Morocco and negotiated a trade agreement with the Government of Morocco.

A Moroccan Goodwill Delegation led by Mr. Allal el Fassi visited India in November, 1960.

(iii) Sudan.-The two Governments co-operated further in matters of technical training.

Shri S. S. Ansari has been appointed as Ambassador for India in the Sudan to succeed Shri R. G. Rajwade.

(iv) United Arab Republic.-The bonds of friendship existing between India and the United Arab Republic were further strengthened by the visits of President Gamal Abdel Nasser to India and of the Indian Prime Minister to the United Arab Republic. Among the other distinguished leaders who exchanged visits were, on the Indian side, Shri Morarji Desai, Minister for Finance, who was, invited to the United Arab Republic, and from the U.A.R., the Minister of Health, the Chairman of the Suez Canal Authority and the Deputy Speaker of the National Assembly of the U.A.R.

The Government of India looked after the interests of the U.A.R. in the United Kingdom and its territories for the greater part of the year and continue to look after the interests of the U.A.R. in France and its territories.

<pg33>

India maintained her contingent with the United Nations Emergency Force in Gaza. The services of General P. S. Gyani of the Indian Army were placed at the service of the United Nations and he was appointed Commander of the United Nations Emergency Force in Gaza. The Prime Minister of India paid a visit to Gaza and met members of the Force.

(v) The Congo.-Belgium handed over power on 30 June 1960 to the Congolese Government headed by Mr. Joseph Kasavubu as President and Mr. Patrice Lumumba as Prime Minister. The Government of India recognised this Government. Since then there have been confusing developments in that country, including the seizure of power by a Military officer, Col. Mobutu. At the request of the Congolese Government, U.N. Forces were sent to the Congo to help restore law and order in the country. As a part of its contribution and at the request of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, India has sent army experts and medical personnel to Congo to work with the U.N. Forces. Shri Rajeshwar Dayal was appointed by the Secretary-General of the United Nations as his Special Representative in the Congo.

The U.N. General Assembly at its Special Session recommended in its resolution of 20 September 1960 the appointment of a U.N. Good Offices Mission for the Congo of Afro-Asian countries to assist the Congolese in reconciling their internal differences. After much delay and vacillation the Mission consisting of representatives of Afro-Asian countries, including India, assembled in the Congo early in January 1961. Shri Rameshwar Rao, M.P., is the Government of India's representative on the Mission.

The Government of India opened an Embassy in Leopoldville under a Charge d' Affairs with the rank of Counsellor.

(vi) Malagasy.-The Proclamation of Madagascar's Independence was made on 26 June 1960, declaring it an independent State within the French Community. The independence celebrations were held from 29 to 31 July, 1960. On behalf of the Government of India, Shri I. J. Bahadur Singh, Commissioner of India in Nairobi, and Shri J. A. Shah, Charge d' Affairs, Embassy of India, Tananarive, attended the celebrations.

(vii) Mauritius.-Mauritius suffered two cyclones in January-February 1960 which caused untold havoc ; several deaths, many injured, and widespread destruction and devastation of the sugar industry on which depends the main economy of the island. As a gesture of assistance to the victims the Government of India sent relief supplies in the form of blankets, coir products, sarees, clothing, utensils., etc., worth about rupees two lakhs.

(viii) West Africa-Ghana.-On 1 July 1960, the Constitution of Ghana, came into operation and Ghana became a sovereign Republic within the

<pg34>

Commonwealth. Shri V. K. Krishna Menon, Defence Minister and Shri Khub Chand, High Commissioner for India in Ghana, represented the Government of India at the celebrations at Accra.

Nigeria.-Nigeria attained independence on 1 October 1960 and became a member of the Commonwealth. Shri A. K. Sen, Law Minister, Shri P. N. Haksar, High Commissioner-designate for India in Nigeria, and Shri Rameshwar Rao, M.P. represented the Government of India at the celebrations at Lagos.

The status of the Commission of India in Nigeria was raised to that of High Commission with effect from 1 October 1960 and Shri P. N. Haksar appointed High Commissioner.

Cameroon (French).-Cameroon (French) achieved independence on 1 January 1960 as the Cameroon Republic. Shri R. Goburdhan, India's Ambassador in Morocco, represented Government of India at the Independence Celebrations.

Liberia.-The High Commissioner for India in Ghana has been concurrently accredited as Ambassador to Liberia.

Guinea.-The President of Guinea, Mr. Sekou Toure, visited India in September 1960.

The High Commissioner for India in Ghana was concurrently accredited as Ambassador to Guinea.

Togoland.-The French administered U.N. Trust Territory of Togoland became independent on 27 April 1960 as the Republic of Togo.

On behalf of the Government of India, Shri R. G. Rajwade, Ambassador of India to the Sudan, attended the independence celebrations of the Republic of Togo at Lome.

(ix) South Africa.-The South African Government continued the policy of apartheid extending its application further into the realms of sport and public health with the provision for separate blood-bank for the different racial groups.

Further proclamations under the Group Areas-Act were issued to declare the magisterial districts of Estcourt (Natal), Warmbaths (Transvaal), Bellville (Cape of Good Hope), Pietermaritzburg (Natal), Haarlem (Uniondale), Suurbraak (Swellendam), Port Elizabeth, Breidbach in the district of King Williams Town, the districts of Wolmaransstad, Richmond, Steynsburg, Prieska, Mossel Bay (Cape of Good Hope), Coligny in the district of Lichtenburg, the borough of Newcastle, Newsel-Umdloti Beach in the district of Inanda, Wolseley in the district of Tulbagh, Rustenburg, Greyville and Cato Manor areas of Durban as group areas for different racial communities. From the Cato Manor area of Durban some 40,000 Indians and 100,000 Africans are being evicted in spite of severe protestations made to the Group Areas Board by the Indian Rate-payers' Association. From Rustenburg about 1,000 Indians are being turned out.

In March 1960, the Pan-African Congress, which was formed over a year ago as a splinter group of the African National Congress, sent a call to the South African people to launch a peaceful campaign against the Pass Laws imposed by the South African Government. On 21 March 1960 thousands of South Africans reported to the police without their passes and sought arrest. Their object was to demonstrate the force of organised non-violence, as a first step in the campaign to reverse apartheid. At Sharpeville, 36 miles from Johannesburg, when the Africans were marching in a procession against the Pass Laws, the Police apparently without provocation opened fire on them killing 50 and wounding 150. On 22 March, a similar demonstration took place in the Langa township near Cape Town. The police again resorted to firing and killed 66 Africans and wounded about 200 persons. The South African Government followed these shootings with strict measures of reprisals. All meetings of all races were banned in Johannesburg, Durban and Cape Town from the 24th March. On 30 March 1960 a State of Emergency was declared in 80 out of 300 magisterial districts of the Union. The African National Congress, the Pan-African Congress and other organisations were banned under the Unlawful Organisations Act. A number of people of all races including leading figures in the Liberal Party, Congress of Democrats, Indian Congress, African National Congress and the Pan-African Congress were arrested under the Emergency Laws. About 1,700 persons including 94 Whites, 24 Coloureds and 1,494 Africans, were reported to have been detained under the Emergency Regulations,

The Sharpeville and Langa shooting outrages evoked a world-wide condemnation of the South African Government. A Commission of Enquiry was appointed by the Government but though the Commission's report has been submitted, the Government have, for reasons best known to them, not made it public yet.

The Pass Laws, which were temporarily relaxed in the wake of Sharpeville and Langa shootings have been reinforced. Reference books for native women have been made compulsory. From 1 December, the South African Government has decreed, that no one may employ any African woman of the apparent age of 16 or over till she was in possession of a reference book.

While some leaders like Dr. Dadoo and Mr. Tambo, Vice-President of the African National Congress, who could not be arrested under the Emergency Regulations, escaped to London, others critical of apartheid were either refused permission to enter South Africa or deported. The Rt. Rev. Ambrose Reeves, the Anglican Bishop of Johannesburg, was deported on 12 September 1960 in the greatest secrecy. Recently he has been permitted to return to South Africa.

In June-July 1960, the Government of India directed their representatives in Asia and Africa to present a note to the countries to which they are accredited giving in brief the action taken by the Government of India during the last 14 years to combat the evil of the racial policies of South Africa. In this note, the countries in Africa and Asia were informed that the Government of India would be glad to know what measures they proposed to adopt to combat South Africa's racial policies so that the policies could be co-ordinated with a view to bringing effective and combined pressure on the Government of South Africa.

During the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' Conference in London in May 1960, the Prime Ministers availed themselves of Mr. Louw's presence in London to have informal discussions with him about the racial situation in South Africa. During these informal discussions, Mr. Louw explained the Union's policies. The Prime Ministers emphasized that the Commonwealth itself was a multi-racial association and expressed the need to ensure good relations between all member States and the peoples of the Commonwealth.

As is well known, the Government of India had imposed a ban in 1946 on all imports from and exports to South Africa. This year, the Governments of Ghana and Federation of Malaya also announced a trade boycott of South Africa. The Government of Eastern Nigeria has also issued instructions to its Government Departments not to buy South African goods.

At its 14th Session, the UN General Assembly had renewed its appeal to the Union of South Africa to enter into negotiations with the Governments of India and Pakistan with regard to the question of the treatment of people of Indian origin in the Union of South Africa. In pursuance of this resolution, the Government of India again addressed the Government of South Africa through the South African High Commissioner in London and the South African Permanent Representative in New York on 4 April 1960. In these communications, the Government of India conveyed to the South African Government their willingness to act in accordance with UN General Assembly's resolution and expressed their desire and readiness to enter into and pursue negotiations with the Government of the Union of South Africa. While the South African High Commissioner in London acknowledged receipt of the communication from the High Commissioner of India, the Government of the Union of South Africa, did not take any step to implement the wishes of the General Assembly. The Government of India have, therefore, again raised this issue of the treatment of people of Indian origin in the Union of South Africa at the current session of the General Assembly.

<pg37>

In October 1960 the South African Government held a referendum on the proposal to make South Africa a Republic. The verdict given by the referendum is in favour of the Nationalist Party, which is in power at the moment. The right of voting in the referendum was, however, granted only to the Whites who total 1.6 million; the country's 12 million non-Whites were denied any say on this important issue. Although the necessary legislation to implement the decision may not be passed by the South African Parliament until some time next year, the question of her continuing as a member of the Commonwealth after she assumes a republic status is likely to engage the attention of the Commonwealth Government.

(x) South-West Africa.-The Committee on South-West Africa appointed by the General Assembly had observed in its report submitted to the General Assembly that "the mandatory Power bases its administration of the Territory on a "policy of apartheid" and "White supremacy" contrary to the Mandate System and to the Charter of the United Nations, and its goal is the annexation of the Territory". In the note presented to the African and Asian nations through Indian Diplomatic Representatives in those countries, the Government of India stated that they would be glad to co-ordinate with those Governments further action in regard to South West Africa, both inside and outside the United Nations to ensure that the mandatory authority carries out in full the obligations undertaken by it to "promote to the utmost the moral and material well-being and the social progress of the inhabitants of the Territory".

On 30th September 1960, Siberia has informed the UN General Assembly that, together with Ethiopia, it would file a 'contentious action' against South Africa in the World Court in an effort to resolve the issue of South-West Africa.

(xi) Ethiopia.-As in the past years, the Government of India continued to extend training facilities in Defence Establishments in India to Defence personnel from Ethiopia.

In March 1960 the Imperial Ethiopian Government extended an invitation to the Government of India to send a special Military Mission to attend the 25th Anniversary of the Haile Selassie I Military School at Harar, which was scheduled to take place towards the end of April 1960. The Government of India accepted this invitation and sent a delegation to Ethiopia led by Maj.-Gen. M. S. Wadalia Deputy Chief of Army Staff, with two other Army Officers as members. The Indian delegation reached Addis Ababa on 28th April 1960 and left Addis Ababa on 7th May 1960 after participating in the Silver jubilee celebrations.

In May/June 1960, a Selection Committee led by Mr. Ato Tedla Tabeja, Head of the Inspection Department of the Ministry of Education and Fine Arts of the imperial Ethiopian Government and including

<pg38>

Mr. B. G. Lister, Programme Officer, visited India and interviewed a number of candidates for appointment as teachers in Ethiopia. In all, the Government of Ethiopia have so far recruited 46 Indian teachers this year. On a request received from the Imperial Ethiopian Embassy in New Delhi, passport facilities were granted by the Government of India to the selected candidates.

In July 1956, the Government of India received a request from the Imperial Ethiopian Government for the loan of India Army Officers to organise a Military Academy for the Ethiopian Government. This request was accepted by the Government of India and the services of a number of Army Officers were placed at the disposal of that Government for that purpose. In September 1960, the Government of Ethiopia extended an invitation to the Government of India to send a delegation to Ethiopia to participate in the first Graduation Ceremony of the First Batch of Gentlemen Cadets to be held on 1st October 1960. In view of the close association of India with the Military Academy, the Emperor of Ethiopia had made a special request that the Indian delegation should be led by the Chief of the Army Staff. The Government of India accepted the invitation and General K. S. Thimmayya was deputed to participate in the Graduation Ceremonies in Ethiopia. The celebration lasted from 1st to 3rd October 1960.

(xii) Somalia.-In response to an invitation extended by the Somali Republic to its Independence Celebrations from 1st to 4th July 1960, the Government of India sent a delegation to Mogadiscio with Smt. Lakshmi N. Menon, Deputy Minister for External Affairs, as its leader and Shri Jagat Singh, Commissioner for India at Aden, as member.

H.EUROPE

(xx) Yugoslavia.-The Foreign Minister of Yugoslavia, Mr. Popovic, visited India in April 1960. The Minister of Scientific Research and Cultural Affairs, Prof. Humayun Kabir, went to Yugoslavia in June 1960.

An Agreement on Scientific and Technical Cooperation between India and Yugoslavia was signed in January 1960.

Credit Agreement for the delivery of capital goods and equipment was signed on 21 January 1960 according to which 40 million U.S. dollars will be made available to India. A Trade and Payments Agreement was also signed on the same day between the two countries. This agreement seeks to increase the volume of trade to the maximum possible levels.

India and Yugoslavia have also signed a cultural agreement. It is proposed to set up University Chairs for the propagation of Indian and Slovak studies.

The Indian frigate, INS 'Talwar', went to Yugoslavia on a four-day goodwill visit.

A mountaineering expedition came from Yugoslavia, and successfully climbed Trishul.

I. THE AMERICAS

India's relations with American countries continued to develop favourably during the year.

NORTH AMERICA.

(i) Canada.-A fine example of the co-operation with Canada was the installation of the Canada-India Reactor at Trombay. The Reactor became critical in the month of July 1960. The Prime Minister formally inaugurated it on 16th January 1961 before representatives from all over the world. Although, less widely known, the second Power House of the Kunda Project was also completed this year with Canadian aid. Mr. Gordon Churchill, Minister for Veterans Affairs and Leader of the House of Commons of Canada attended the opening ceremony of this second Power House in January 1961.

A group of students from the National Defence College of Canada paid a visit to India in April 1960 as part of their annual overseas tour.

A delegation led by Shri A. M. Thomas, Deputy Minister (Food), visited Canada on the invitation of the Canadian Government in August 1960.

(ii) U.S.A.-There were many notable visits of dignitaries, students, artists and naval ships on both sides, climaxed by the visit of President

<pg44>

Eisenhower to India and of the Prime Minister to the United Nations in September/October 1960.

During the year, Ambassador Chagla held several Press Conferences. and delivered many speeches to explain India's view-point on national and international issues. Some of his speeches were broadcast and/or televised. The Ambassador received hon. Degrees of Doctor of Law from two important American Universities, viz. Temple and Boston.

A number of ships of the U.S. Navy, viz., USS "U.S.A." USS "Bonhomme", USS "Valcour", USS "Morton", USS "Hammer", USS "Canberra" and USS "Greenwich Bay", paid courtesy visits to various Indian ports during the year. These ships and their crews received a friendly welcome.

The Government of India and the United State Air Force agreed to collaborate in a joint venture of scientific research study of atmospheric circulations upto 100,000 feet both in India and in the U.S.A. The study in India is expected to be carried out during the months of March/April 1961. The results of this joint venture may well prove a significant landmark in Indo-US collaboration. The Government of India have also decided to participate in the Indian Ocean Expedition which is being organised by the International Council of Scientific Unions.

President Eisenhower on behalf of the Government of U.S.A. signed a PL, 480 Agreement with Shri S. K. Patil, Union Minister for Food and Agriculture on 4 May 1960 for the purchase of 17 million tons of Wheat and Rice worth dollars 1,276 million. The Agreement provides that the rupees equivalent of not more than dollars 538 million representing about 42.1 per cent of the rupees accruing to the U.S. Government on account of the purchases by India, will be given as loan to the Government of India for financing such projects to promote economic development as may be mutually agreed. The Agreement envisages a four-year programme which would make a significant contribution to India's Third Five-Year Plan.

An event of significance, was the winning of the celebrated Golden Laurel Trophy by the well-known Film Producer, Shri Satyajit. Ray for his film "Aparajito", which was shown for the first time in the U.S.A. this year. The premieres of "Aparajito", "Quest for Peace", "Radha Krishna" and "Folk Dances of India" were well presented and well attended.

The following Indian dignitaries paid visits to the U.S.A.

(i) Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Vice-President of India addressed Harvard and Earlham Universities at their invitation.

(ii) Shri Morarji Desai, Minister of Finance, attended the meeting of the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank and the International Finance Corporation. During his visit the Finance Minister

<pg45>

(xi) An Indian Badminton Team visited the U.S.A.

The following agreements were signed between the Government of India and the U.S.A. during the year under report:-

- (1) Supply of Food grains to India.
- (2) DLF Loan Agreement.
- (3) Amendment to the Agreement between the Government of India and the Government of the United States of America for the avoidance of double taxation with respect to taxes on income.

<pg46>

- (4) Amendment of the Agreement between the United States of America and India of 1950 to promote further mutual understanding between the peoples of the United States, and India by a wider exchange of knowledge and professional talents through educational contacts.

A sample of polished black granite stone which is to be used for the Mahatma Gandhi's Samadhi at Rajghat was sent in response to a request from our Mission in New York for use in a "Peace Shrine and Garden" proposed to be set up at Christmas, Florida.

In October inter-Governmental consultations were held in New Delhi between the U.S.A. and India about revising the present Air Agreement. These talks proved inconclusive.

CENTRAL AMERICA.

(i) Cuba.-Shri M. C. Chagla, Ambassador of India in the U.S.A., paid his first visit to Cuba and presented his credentials as Minister on 12th January 1960. It has since been decided between the Governments of India and Cuba to raise their diplomatic representation to the level of Embassies.

(ii) Mexico.-Shri M. C. Chagla, Ambassador of India in the U.S.A. and concurrently accredited as Ambassador to Mexico, accompanied by Shri P. L. Bhandari, Charge d' Affaires in Mexico, participated in the 150th anniversary of Mexican Independence, the 100th anniversary of the Triumph of Reform and the 50th anniversary of the Mexican Revolution. The celebrations were held from 12th to 17th September 1960.

Shrimati Indira Gandhi paid goodwill visit to Mexico from 24th October 1960 to 4th November 1960 at the invitation of the Mexican Government. She was received by the President of Mexico and by Senora Mateos.

(iii) Panama.-Mr. Miguel Jomoreno, Minister of Foreign Relations of Panama, accompanied by five members of his party visited India as State guest in March 1960.

SOUTH AMERICA.

(i) Argentina.-The Indian Ballet 'Ranga Sri' visited Argentina in August 1960 and gave two performances in that country. The performances were greatly appreciated and the Ballet received very favourable notices in the local Press.

(ii) Brazil.-The Government of India contributed towards the aid of victims of the floods caused by the rupture of the Oros Dam in Brazil.

Shri M. K. Kirpalani, Ambassador of India, Rio de Janeiro, represented India at the inauguration of Brazilia, the new capital of Brazil, on 21st April 1960. The President of India sent a message of greetings, to the President of Brazil on the occasion.

<pg47>

The Government of India, agreed to the opening of the Brazilian Consulate in Madras during the year.

(iii) Chile.-The Indo-Chilean Trade Agreement which expired on 31st December 1959 has since been renewed.

Shri R. S. Mani, Ambassador of India signed the new Agreement at Santiago on 10th March 1960.

The Government of India has sent relief supplies worth about Rs. one lakh and five thousand, consisting of jute bags, tea and ready-to-wear garments for the victims of the earthquake in Chile.

The President and the Prime Minister sent messages of sympathy to the President of Chile on the occasion.

(iv) Ecuador.-Shri M. K. Kirpalani, the Ambassador of India to Brazil, represented India at the inauguration of the, new President of Ecuador at Quito on 1st September 1960.

J. EXTERNAL PUBLICITY

(i) Generat.-The reorganisation of the External Publicity Division and its personnel was carried a step further during the period under review. While no major expansion projects could be taken in hand on account of financial stringency, by readjustment of existing resources and a judicious exploitation of various publicity media the Headquarters and overseas Information Posts attempted to meet the challenge of the increasing interest in, and growing awareness of, India abroad.

(ii) Changes in cadre.-In implementation of the decisions taken in 1959 relating to the reorganisation of the cadre of the Information Service of India, the grade of Information Assistants was abolished. Out of ten information Assistants on 10 July, 1959, two were promoted as Assistant Information Officers while the remaining eight were absorbed as Grade III officers of the IFS(B) as a result of their opting for that cadre. A temporary post of Assistant Information Officer at Headquarters was not continued during the current financial year, thus bringing the number of such posts from 11 to 10. This step was taken to facilitate the gradual reduction of the ten Assistant Information Officers' posts to eight posts in the junior Scale of the IFS. It may be mentioned that six posts of Assistant Information Officers at Headquarters have already been converted to posts in the junior Scale of the IFS. One Assistant Press Attache's post at Washington was held in abeyance and a post of IFS probationer was created instead. An IFS probationer was appointed to this post. In accordance with the decision to fill up 50 per cent of the vacancies in the grade of Information Officers from the Senior Scale of IFS, it was decided to carry over the post of Press Attache in Tokyo to the Senior Scale of IFS and appoint an IFS officer to that post. The year under review saw the completion of the work connected with the grant of contracts upto the age of superannuation to the Publicity Officers against six permanent posts of Public Relations Officers, 29 permanent posts of Information Officers and 14 permanent posts of Assistant Information Officers. The draft contract form which gives full security of tenure, as in the case of a permanent Government servant, was finalised in consultation with the Ministries of Finance and Law, and will be issued to the officers concerned before the end of the year.

(iii) Organisation and staff.-A total staff of 546 is employed in the External Publicity Division Headquarters and the Information Posts abroad. This includes 9 Public Relations Officers, one Deputy Director, Information Service, 37 Information Officers, 6 Attaches (Information), 18 Assistant Information Officers, 138 India-based Assistants and clerks etc. and 337 locally recruited personnel in the various Missions.

Although an Assistant Press Attache was sanctioned for Prague in the last financial year, the filling up of the post was held tip during the period under review because of formalities connected with the relaxation of the ban on the creation of new posts. Similarly, proposals for the establishment of new Information units at Mexico, Santiago, Madrid, Rabat, Addis Ababa, Kampala, Beirut and Trinidad had to be deferred on account of the ban on creation of posts. The Information Post at Washington was strengthened by the posting of an Assistant Press Attache to look after the increased publicity work of the office of the Commissioner General for Economic Affairs.

(iv) Budget and Expenditure.-The total budgetary provision for the External Publicity Division including all Information Units abroad for the year 1960-61 amounted to Rs. 107.15 lakhs. Of this, 24.99 lakhs represent expenditure at Headquarters, while Rs. 82.16 lakhs was to be spent on the Information Posts abroad. This expenditure includes salaries and allowances of officers and staff (India-based and local), cost of passages, rents and taxes for premises, cost of furniture and other equipment, postage, wireless transmissions, production and distribution of publicity material, audiovisual publicity, exhibitions abroad and expenditure on foreign press delegations visiting India at the Government of India's invitation. Until more funds become available for external publicity, the proportion of total resources that can be deployed for actual information and publicity work after meeting the basic needs, will continue to be small. The External Publicity Division maintains on the present budget 42 separate Information Units and provides information facilities to 94 Indian Posts abroad.

(v) Press and Information Media.-The External Publicity Division is responsible for the formulation of publicity policy and planning of publicity programmes for the projection of India abroad through various media like the press, radio, films, pamphlets books etc. It is also responsible for the internal publicity of the Ministry of External Affairs since July, 1958. The Division continued to provide the following main overseas services:

- (a) Material for the press, both written and pictorial.
- (b) Reference material on all aspects of India.
- (c) Supply of newspapers, periodicals and prestige publicity material for reading rooms of overseas Information Offices and for free distribution.
- (d) Pamphlets and books on India.
- (e) Display material including posters, photographs, maps.
- (f) Exhibition material.

(g) Gramophone records, discs and tape-recorded material for use by the local radio.

(h) Films, for non-commercial exhibition and for television.

In selection and supply of publicity material for various categories, more emphasis continued to be laid on the regional approach and the special requirements of different overseas posts. Authentic news and background to news about India was supplied to our Posts through Wireless Transmissions broadcast three times a day. These transmissions are at present received by 37 posts and arrangements are in hand to extend the service to a few more posts. This was supplemented by ad hoc news cables service for some of our posts not picking up our daily morse transmissions.

In addition, out Posts abroad were regularly supplied by airmail with series of feature articles, background notes and special write-ups on various aspects of life and progress in India'. Since January, 1960, over 125 specially prepared feature articles and 25 photo features were distributed to 94 Indian Posts abroad.

For special publicity campaigns on important occasions, such as Republic Day, Independence Day, Children's Day, Mahatma Gandhi's Birthday and VIP's visits abroad, selected material was supplied to our Posts.

During the period the libraries attached to our Missions abroad were continuously expanded and a large number of books on various subjects (including books in Hindi, Urdu, Panjabi etc.) were supplied at an approximate cost of Rs. 1,25,000. Our Missions abroad were supplied with collections of Indian newspapers and periodicals (at an approximate cost of Rs. 1,15,000) for selective distribution in their areas. They were also supplied with a number of Government publications produced by Central and State Governments at an estimated cost of Rs. 5,46,000 for free distribution in foreign countries.
<pg50>

Based on material supplied from Headquarters our Information Posts abroad continued to bring out daily, periodical and special bulletins in English and in many cases in local languages, for free distribution to leaders of public opinion, individuals and institutions in their respective areas.

The mailing lists were rationalised and enlarged, whenever possible, during the year. Besides these regular bulletins, special handouts were also brought out by our Missions on important issues of world importance giving the Indian point of view.

Our major Posts also brought out quarterly, half-yearly or annual reviews and special Republic Day brochures for distribution. Important publications were translated and issued by the Posts in local languages as these have proved useful and popular among foreign readers interested in India.

The Overseas Information Posts kept the Division regularly informed of the trends of public opinion abroad by cable and airmail. From the material thus received the Division continued to issue a daily review called the "World Press Review" circulated to about 600 recipients. The Division continued to publish a monthly magazine called "Foreign Affairs Record", containing documents and texts for distribution to our Missions, abroad and to a number of individuals and institutions in India. During the year, fifteen pamphlets on various subjects were also brought out by this Division for publicity abroad.

Over 500 requests for information of various kinds from our Missions abroad were met by the Research and Reference Section of the Division which scrutinised, classified and indexed, during this period, over 55,000 foreign clippings and 9,000 Indian newspaper clippings, in addition to a vast collection of material for providing background information.

Our Information Posts have arranged special numbers on India to be brought out by foreign newspapers of standing and influence. A latest example is that of the Wisdom Magazine of the USA. A Special Number of this is devoted to India and the Prime Minister; and the Division supplied a good deal of material including articles, texts, background material, books and Publications and nearly 300 select photographs. Besides, the Information Posts in Washington and San Francisco were instructed to provide textual and pictorial material available with them and to assist the editors in the production. The result was a publication of extraordinary quality, and ten thousand copies of this Special Number were purchased for wide distribution through Indian Missions in English speaking areas.

(vi) Audio-Visual Publicity.-A variety of audio-visual media were utilised in order to step up India's publicity and cultural work abroad. Films photographs, gramophone records, tapes and discs supplied from Headquarters were widely used by our Missions abroad on the radio.. television, screen, the press and platform with effective results. There is considerable scope for expansion in this field of publicity which reaches millions of people abroad at little expense in proportion to the results achieved.

Their continuing popularity make Indian films an effective media of publicity for India. During the period under review, a large number of Indian documentaries, children's films and feature films were exhibited abroad non-commercially by our Missions and also entered for competitive and non-competitive film festivals. A large number of documentary films and news reviews were shown on the screen and television circuits abroad. 78 Missions are now being supplied regularly with Indian documentary films while 30 Missions receive Indian News Reviews. An effort is being made to supply films with commentaries in the languages of the countries in which our Missions function. As a method of special publicity and as a measure designed to promote international good-will, we have also been sending compilation films on the visits to India of leaders of other countries. Films relating to the visits abroad of the President and the Prime Minister as well as the visit to India of Premier Khrushchev, President Nasser and others were sent to the Missions during the period under review. An attempt was also made to widen the scope of selection of Indian films to include other languages of India besides Hindi, and it is hoped that this process would enable us in securing wider and better choice of feature films for exhibition abroad by our Posts. As usual, we assisted in India's participation in 36 competitive and non-competitive international film festivals in different countries. Exclusive film festivals of Indian films were also organised in some countries in order to promote the commercial export of films and to augment our publicity and cultural work abroad. The commercial exhibition of Government of India's documentaries in some select foreign countries has also been assisted.

About 65,000 photographs on all aspects of Indian life were supplied to the Missions abroad for publication in newspapers and display at exhibitions and, for meeting ad-hoc requests. This represents twice the number of pictures distributed during the previous year. On a pattern similar to the one in the case of film coverage special photographic coverage was furnished to Indian Posts abroad during the Visits to, foreign countries of Indian leaders and visits to India of leaders of other countries. Because of lack of funds and other facilities, it was not possible to meet adequately the growing demand for colour photographs and transparencies. A large number of photographs on subjects and events of Indian interest received from Indian Missions abroad were released to the Indian Press.

A good selection of gramophone records and tape recordings of Indian music-classical and popular-were supplied to Indian Missions during this period. These were made use of by foreign radio networks and at functions organised by the Missions and by other foreign cultural institutions. Tape recorders, radiograms, record-players and radio sets were also supplied to Missions on request. Close liaison was maintained with the External Services of the All India Radio in connection with the supply of recorded music and other exchange broadcast programmes.. The increased publicity on the audio-visual front may be gauged from the fact that the budget on this account has now doubled from Rs. lakhs to approximately Rs. 4 lakhs.

(vii) Cultural activities.-During the year, the Division assisted Indian Missions abroad to participate in and organise over 50 exhibitions. Among the most successful were those held in Washington, Paris, Warsaw, Sydney, Tokyo, Nairobi. Cairo. Tunis, Alexandria, Rabat, Istanbul and Bhutan. Mobile exhibitions showing current trends of progress in India were designed at Headquarters-and circulated to some of our Posts abroad. Apart from 500 tape recordings on various subjects supplied to our Missions in about 50 countries. sets of Indian musical instruments were made available to some of our Missions for presentation to important cultural institutions in their regions. A special feature of the period under review was the cultural publicity centred round the observance of important days like Gandhi Jayanti, Kalidas Jayanti and Tagore Jayanti. Paintings, musical items, costumes, toys etc. were supplied to Missions in this connection. A great deal of preparatory work was also taken in hand by the Division in collaboration with the Ministry of SR & CA in connection with the forthcoming Tagore Centenary Celebrations in May, 1961. A number of personal requests, for assistance from scholars abroad was also met by the Division.

(viii) Press Relations.-The Press Relations Section of the Ministry of External Affairs which came into existence in July, 1958 was kept fully occupied during the period under review. As in the previous year, the developments connected with the Sino-Indian Border dispute climaxing with the visit of the Chinese Premier Chou En-lai to India in March, 1960 and the State Visits of a number of foreign dignitaries including President Voroshilov, Premier Khrushchev, the Prime Minister of Finland, President Nassar, Prime Minister Koirala of Nepal and the Polish Prime Minister brought a very large number of foreign correspondents, photographers, radio and television units to India. In addition, there were a number of other journalists who visited India on their own, and were interested in seeing Indian development projects. The Press Relations Sections assisted all these journalists and maintained close liaison with other Ministries and Departments concerned in order to ensure that the visiting journalists were given all possible assistance in matters relating to expeditious clearance of personal effects, photographic film and film equipment, granting temporary accreditation and facilities for speedy despatch of their press material. In the case of the visits of foreign dignitaries, necessary liaison was maintained with Directors of Publicity, in various States. The issue of material to foreign pressmen in India, especially the White Papers on Sino-Indian Relations, the Prime Minister's statements in Parliament on matters of foreign policy and the maps of India's northern frontier are worthy of mention. About 500 press releases were issued by the Press Relations Section during the period under review covering among others Banquet Speeches of visiting dignitaries, joint Communiques and Statements, the Canal Waters Treaty- between India and Pakistan, the Indo-Nepal Trade Agreement and the speeches and interviews granted by the Prime Minister during his visit to the United Nations.

Three Press Delegations from Spain, U.A.R., and Saudi Arabia were looked after by the Division and their tours round India was conducted by the officers of the Division. As usual, a very large number of interviews with the President, Vice-President, Prime Minister and other Union Ministers and other senior officials in the Ministry of External Affairs etc. were arranged for important visiting journalists.

K. MISCELLANEOUS.

(i) General Passport and Emigration Organisation.-Amalgamation of the Central Passport Organisation and the Emigration Organisation has since been completed. Gradation of the personnel and fixation of their seniority in the amalgamated establishment have been finalised on an all India basis.

The Regional Passport Officers in Madras, Calcutta and Delhi, who were holding these posts for the last few years, have been replaced during the year 1960. The Regional Passport Officer, Bombay, who was also holding the post for the last few years will be replaced by another officer very shortly.

Passport.-The 2nd conference of the Regional Passport Officers was held at New Delhi on 6, 7 and 8 September, 1960. One of the main items that was considered by the conference was a review of the working of the existing procedure for dealing with passport applications at different stages and to find out way and means to cut down further delays caused in the issue of passports. A number of important decisions were taken at the conference to simplify the procedures with a view to issuing passports expeditiously to applicants. Necessary executive instructions with regard to the decisions taken are being issued to passport issuing authorities in India and abroad.

Passports are issued to officials proceeding abroad to man posts in Indian Missions or to participate as delegates of the Government of India in International Conferences etc. The visas to foreigners coming to take up assignments with foreign Missions in India are also granted by this Section. During January to 31st December, 1960, 401 Diplomatic Passports, 2898 International Passports and 517 Indo-Pakistan Passports have been issued while the respective figures for 1959 were 237, 2779 and 369. The necessary visas are also obtained from the various foreign Missions and Posts in India and roughly speaking four visa notes have to be prepared for every passport.

During January to 31 December, 1960, 2204 visas have been granted to foreigners while the total number of visas granted for the year 1959, 1958 and 1957 were 2045, 1708 and 1441 respectively.

During January, to November, 1960, 42,992 international passports were issued by the 5 Regional Passport Offices in India. There has been an increase in all the Offices in the number of applications received and international passports issued. In 1958 the number of international passports issued were 33,216 and rose to 37,179 in 1959. The trend during the current year shows a further increase. The Regional Passport Offices are coping with the increased volume of work without any addition to the staff by simplifying the procedure and by steady improvement in the methods of work.

Every passport applicant whose case is rejected by a Regional Passport Officer is advised to appeal to the Chief Passport Officer within three months of such rejection if he is dissatisfied with the Regional Passport Officer's decision and his case is reviewed by the Chief Passport Officer on its merits.

After the strict measures taken last year to eliminate the possibility of persons travelling abroad on forged passports, there has been no such case during this year. Check-post authorities have, however, had to prevent a few small parties of persons from proceeding abroad on forged passports. In suitable cases, these persons are being prosecuted by State Governments.

Emigration.-Departure of unskilled workers to Burma, Ceylon, Malaya and Singapore continued to be banned but general exceptions were made in the case of wives and minor children of unskilled workers settled in Ceylon, Malaya and Singapore.

<pg55>

There has been no appreciable improvement in the menace of illicit emigration to Ceylon. As an additional preventive measure the Customs officials patrolling the Gulf of Mannar in the recently acquired launches, have been instructed to be on the look out for country boats carrying, illicit emigrants to Ceylon and to exercise the powers vested in them by section 29 of Indian Emigration Act, 1952. This is being done under the guidance of the Protectors of Emigrants in Madras State.

(ii) Haj.-Next to U.A.R. and Yemen, India sent the largest number of pilgrims-20,695-for the Haj in 1960. Arrangements for medical assistance to the pilgrims were made at Mecca, Medina and jedda. A special medical Contingent of 3 doctors and 2 compounders, equipped with necessary medicines, was also sent to Saudi Arabia. This contingent was in addition to a Haj Seasonal Dispensary established at jedda and a permanent dispensary at Mecca.

An unofficial delegation of two Members of Parliament visited Saudi Arabia in May, 1960, to make an on-the-spot study of the facilities etc., extended to Indian pilgrims, and to see what improvements would be made. They have submitted a report on their visit.

The term of the Central Haj Committee, originally constituted in 1948 to advise the Central Government on matters relating to the Haj, was extended by another year. The Committee held three meetings at Bombay and rendered valuable advice to the Government of India in respect of Haj matters.

The rules under the Haj Committee Act 1959, are under consideration. The Act of 1932, and the rules thereunder remain in force until the rules under the Act of 1959, are finalised.

(iii) Legal and Treaties Division.-The Division is concerned with international legal problems arising in the Ministry and those relating to the international organisations in which India may be interested, such as, the International Court of justice, the sixth Committee of the General Assembly and its subsidiary organs, the Administrative Tribunal of the United Nations, International Conferences for codification and progressive-development of international law and the law. of treaties etc. Ratification.

of treaties and agreements to which India is a party and their publication are also the concern of this Division.

The editing work on the Treaty-Volume for the year 1957, has been completed and it is being sent to the press for printing. The editing) work on the 1947-48, and 1958, volumes is now in hand.

Publication of Geneva Conventions 1949, in Hindi has also been taken, up and the publication is under print.

(iv) Consular Division.-The question of revision of Consular fees- which was under consideration for some time past was finalised during the-period under review and a revised schedule of fees was incorporated in the Diplomatic and Consular Officers (Fees) Rules; 1949.
<pg56>

98 documents consisting of Letters of Request, Commission and other processes were received for transmission from foreign countries to Indian courts and vice versa.

The cases relating to revision of existing arrangements for service of summons in civil cases under section 29 (c) of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 with Nepal, France, Spain, Belgium, the U.S.S.R., Kenya, U.A.R., and Japan have not yet been finalised.

Negotiations for making the above arrangements with Canada, U.S.A., Argentina and Brazil were initiated this year. Similar negotiations with West Germany, Burma, Switzerland, Thailand, Hong Kong, North Borneo, Sarwak, Brunei, Indonesia, Australia and New Zealand have not yet been finalised. After ascertaining laws obtaining in North Borneo, Sarwak Brunei, Indonesia, Australia and U.S.A., it has been decided to abandon the Proposal of making arrangements with these countries for want of reciprocity. The negotiations with the remaining countries are in progress.

The question of making reciprocal arrangements under Section 44A of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for execution of decrees passed by the Indian courts in Colony of Tobago and Trinidad, Japan and Australia was taken up with these countries. Their final replies are awaited.

In view of the difficulties experienced for examinations of witnesses in criminal cases residing in Nepal, West Germany, Ghana and Nigeria, the question of making reciprocal arrangements under section 504(3) and 508A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, has been taken up with those countries.

210 judicial documents such as powers of attorney, affidavits and certificates for use in foreign countries were attested during the period under review.

The cases relating to reciprocal arrangements under section 14 of the Notaries Act, 1952, for recognition of Notarial performed by Notaries with the remaining countries which could not be finalised last year were pursued further but so far only United Kingdom, Isle of Man and Channel Islands have agreed to make such arrangements. It has been decided to abandon the proposal for making such arrangements. with China, Thailand, Iraq, Iran, Cambodia, Norway, Turkey, Malaya, Mexico, Indonesia and West Germany for want of reciprocity.

58 Cases relating to the disposal of estates of deceased Indians abroad were handled during the year.

The cases regarding revision of the reciprocal arrangements under section 57 of the Administrator General's Act, 1913, in regard to the Administration of estates of deceased Indian nationals intestate abroad by the Indian Diplomatic and Consular Officer, with Poland, Iraq, Argentina, Costa Rica, Netherlands, Sweden and Thailand which could not be finalised last year were pursued further. The examination of Polish laws revealed that sufficient reciprocity was afforded in the matter and it was decided to continue the existing arrangement with that country. Such arrangements with Sweden are proposed to be terminated for want of reciprocity. The remaining cases are still under correspondence.
<pg57>

During the period under review 93 Indian citizens (59 major and 34 minor persons) were repatriated as against 63 last year. A sum of Rs. 32,781 and 92 nP. was advanced under the suspense head 'Section-S-D-Deposits and Advances Part III-Advances not bearing interests-Advances repayable-Special Advances'. A sum of Rs, 4,924 and 05 nP. was recovered as against the advances given during the previous years. A, sum of Rs. 22,385 and 88 nP. has been written off as irrecoverable advances. This also includes the amount written off during the period 1 January 1960 to 31 March 1960 which relates to last financial year. The Government of India continues to see to it not to subject the repatriates to undue hardship.

The Government of India have also under consideration the question of the grant of financial assistance to Indian citizens stranded abroad due to temporary difficulties.

The Division dealt with 50 cases relating to extradition of offenders from or to India during the period under review. 82 cases regarding deportation of Indian citizens from abroad were also handled during the same period.

The Home Ministry are mainly concerned with work relating to Indian citizenship, but they referred 1418 cases to this Ministry for comment. In addition, 48 cases which were not of a routine nature were also handled by the Division.

Several enquiries received from Indian Missions abroad in regard to the interpretation of Indian laws especially the marriage and inheritance laws, were handled in consultation with the Ministry of Law and other Ministries.

Ninety-two cases of deaths of foreigners in India were intimated to the foreign missions concerned. In 69 cases' death reports were made direct to the appropriate foreign missions by the State Governments.

13 Requests for remittance facilities from abroad were dealt with in the Division. About a hundred miscellaneous enquiries regarding welfare and whereabouts of Indians were also disposed of.

<pg58>

The task of recovery of advances made to the evacuees from War Zones has been entrusted to the respective State Governments except West Bengal on agency basis. All the State Governments, except Madras and Uttar Pradesh are allowed to retain 50% of the amount thus recovered. The Governments of Madras and U.P. are allowed to retain 80% of the recoveries to meet expenditure on staff etc. In West Bengal, however, this work is being handled by the Burma Loan Recovery Section, consisting of one Superintendent, one Upper Division Clerk, one Lower Division Clerk and one Stenotypist. This staff is working under the control of the Regional Passport Officer, Calcutta. Our missions in Burma, Malaya and Singapore are effecting recoveries from such evacuees who have returned to those countries.

On the whole it can be said that recovery of advances from the evacuees is not encouraging. To expedite disposal of these long pending cases, the process of recovery has been rationalised. In bad cases or in case of such evacuees who are too poor to repay their loans, the amounts are being written off. Only such cases are being retained where the amounts are considerable and the evacuees are in sound financial condition to liquidate their debts. Two officers of the Ministry including the Deputy Financial Adviser and Under Secretary (Cons) have been visiting various State Governments in order to examine the possibilities of quick disposal of the cases, involving more than Rs. 1,000/-, which are pending with the State Governments. They have so far visited Bombay, Punjab, U.P., Bihar, Hyderabad, Madras and West Bengal and will shortly be visiting Kerala.

In accordance with an old agreement the Government of Burma have to reimburse to the Government of India the expenditure incurred by the latter during 1942-47 on certain categories of wartime evacuees such as Burmans, Anglo-Burmans, Anglo-Indians etc. During the year under review, efforts were intensified in this regard and the Government of Burma periodically reminded to accept Indian claims on this account. As a result, it is gratifying to note, that on the request from the Accountant General, Burma, Accountant General West Bengal has actually raised the debit to the tune of Rs. 2,55,075 and 59 nP. only on account of expenditure incurred on the Arakanese refugee Camp at Dignapur, West Bengal.

The Embassy in Burma has recently informed this Division that the Government of Burma will accept the debit of Rs. 6,25,433 and 82 nP. during the next financial year. The Embassy has promised to let us know when the debit would be actually accepted by the Government of Burma. This claim is on account of expenditure incurred by the erst-while Burma Refugee Organisation, Assam, on the reception etc. of the civilian Gorkha evacuees of Burmese domicile. It is also reported that the Government of Burma are considering favourably our other claims.

<pg59>

There has been a proportionate decrease in the number of evacuee orphans getting financial assistance under the scheme for their long term maintenance, care and education on account of their attaining majority, getting married, securing employment etc. The expenditure incurred in this regard is shared equally between the State Governments concerned and the Government of India.

Over and above the work previously mentioned the Division handled a number of cases of miscellaneous nature such as claims of Burma Government pensioners in India, and the welfare of Indian seamen in foreign ports.

(iv) Diplomatic and Consular Missions in India.-At the end of the period under review there were 45 Embassies, 8 High Commissions and 4 Legations, including the Apostolic Internunciature. During the year the status of the Legations of Cuba, and Finland were raised to Embassies. A list of diplomatic missions in India and a list of sub-offices of High Commissions of Commonwealth countries are given at Appendix III.

The total number of foreign Consular Posts at the end of the year was 101. The Consulate of Colombia at Madras was closed down during the year. The Consulate General of Turkey and the Consulate of Brazil, both at Madras, were opened and the Consulate General of Czechoslovakia at Calcutta, which was closed down during the year 1940 due to World War II, was also re-opened during the year. The status of the Consulates (Honorary) of Turkey and Philippines at Calcutta and Bombay respectively was raised to that of Consulates General (Honorary). The Trade Representations of Poland at Bombay and Calcutta were converted into Consulates during the year. The Assistant Commissioner for Malaya at Madras was re-designated as Assistant High Commissioner for Malaya. A list of Foreign Consular Posts is given in Appendix III(a).

(v) Distinguished Visitors from Abroad.-Among the distinguished visitors to India since last year's report were The Earl of Selkirk, British Commissioner for Singapore and Commissioner General for South East Asia accompanied by Countess of Selkirk (3 to 5 January 1960); Mr. Alfred Krupp from West Germany (3 to 5 January 1960); Pakistan Delegation for border talks led by Lt.-General K. ## A. United Nations

PART III

A. UNITED NATIONS

(i) Fifteenth Assembly.-The first part of the 15th session of the General Assembly was held in New York, from Sep 20, 1960 to 20th December, 1960. It was the largest and most representative diplomatic gathering in recent history, attended by several Heads of State and Government, including the Prime Minister of India. Shri V. K. Krishna Menon, Minister of Defence, was the Chairman of the Indian Delegation.

(ii) General International Situation.-A feature of the session was the submission jointly before the Assembly of a resolution, by the Presidents of Ghana, Indonesia, the United Arab Republic, Yugoslavia. and the Prime Minister of India. It sought a renewal of the recently-interrupted contacts between the President of the United States and the Chairman of the Council of Ministers of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics as a step towards the easing of international tension. This resolution was ultimately withdrawn by the Indian Prime Minister when certain essential parts of it were voted on separately, and were ruled not to have been carried.

In its place, India initiated another resolution, expressing concern over the international situation, and calling on all nations to refrain from any acts that might increase international tension. This resolution, which was unanimously adopted, also reaffirmed the conviction that the strength of the United Nations rested on the co-operation of its member states, and urged that immediate and constructive steps be taken in regard to the problems concerning the peace of the world and the advancement of its peoples.

(iii) Disarmament.-The General Assembly at its fourteenth session in 1959 had accepted the goal of complete and general disarmament under effective international control and a 10-nation Committee was entrusted with the task of working out detailed measures towards this goal. The Committee met in Geneva in the spring of 1960 and the respective proposals of the Western Allies and those of the Soviet Union were discussed. A wide gap existed between the positions of these two groups and no agreement could be reached. The problem again came for consideration before the fifteenth session of the General Assembly. There thirteen resolutions were moved in the Political Committee by various States on different aspects of the problem. In order to provide a common ground for further negotiations, India along with other states co-sponsored a resolution setting out the principles which should govern general and complete disarmament. This has remained pending before the Assembly, and will be taken up by it on its resumption in March, 1961.

The tripartite conference between Britain, the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. on the discontinuance of nuclear weapons tests continued its deliberations in Geneva. Some articles of the proposed treaty were agreed upon but differences on others still continued. India again submitted the question of the suspension of nuclear and thermonuclear tests for the consideration of the General Assembly, and co-sponsored two resolutions. The latter were adopted without any dissenting vote. They urged the States participating in the Geneva conference to make every effort to reach early agreement and to continue their present voluntary ban on nuclear tests. One contained a specific request to all other states to refrain from undertaking nuclear weapons tests.

The Prime Minister of India in his speech in the Assembly earnestly pleaded for agreement on general and complete disarmament without further delay. He expressed the hope that more efforts would be made by the powers concerned to reach agreement on the discontinuance of nuclear weapons tests and the reduction of tensions in the world which produced fears of surprise attack.

(iv) Admission of New Members.-Sixteen newly-independent African States and Cyprus were admitted to the United Nations during the 15th session. This brought the total U.N. membership to 99, and was one of the major developments of the session.

(v) Among other important decisions taken by the Assembly were the following:-

(a) Representation of China.-The Assembly again rejected the proposal, which was made this year by the U.S.S.R., that the question of the representation of China be discussed at the current session, As in previous years, it adopted a U.S.-initiated motion. "not to consider, at its fifteenth regular session, any proposals to exclude the representatives of the Government of the Republic of China or to seat representatives of the Central People's Government of the People's Republic of China". India supported the request for inscription of the question.

(b) Algeria.-The Assembly, for the first time, adopted a positive recommendation on the right of the Algerian people to self-determination and the responsibility of the U.N. in the matter. However, a key paragraph in the resolution, which would have the U.N. to organise, control, and supervise a referendum in Algeria, was rejected as it failed to obtain the two-third majority. India was one of the sponsors of the resolution.

(c) The Congo.-The Assembly failed to take any substantive decision on the situation in the Congo, apart from seating the representatives nominated by President Kasavubu. Its financial decisions included an authorisation to the Secretary-General to spend up to $ 24m., for the U.N.'s Congo operations in the first three months of 1961. The Assembly also adopted a resolution apportioning Congo expenses between members on the basis of their contribution to the regular budget (with certain rebates accruing from voluntary contributions) and recognising that such assessments created a binding legal Obligation of payment against member States. Finally, the Assembly decided to retain the item, "the Situation in the Congo", on its agenda for the resumed session, following the failure to carry both the Afro-Asian and the Anglo-American resolutions on the basic aspects of the problem. Meanwhile, the U.N.'s mandate in the Congo rested upon the resolutions of the Security Council and of the Assembly's fourth emergency special session.

(d) Security Council Elections.-The Assembly denied the West European Group's nominee, Portugal, a seat on the Security Council that had so far, by convention, gone to that group. The reason was Portugal's extreme unpopularity among large sections of the Assembly, particularly the Afro-Asian Group, because of its colonial policies. Following Portugal's withdrawal, a compromise settlement was reached under which Liberia was elected for 1961. and would resign in favour of Ireland for the second year of its term. Chile and the United Arab, Republic were however elected for a full two-year term.

(e) Colonialism.-The General Assembly at its fifteenth session vigorously discussed the question of colonialism. India along with 41 African-Asian States and Cyprus moved a resolution which was adopted by the Assembly without opposition. It declared that immediate steps, should be taken in Trust and Non-self-governing Territories and all other territories which had not yet attained independence to transfer all powers to the peoples of those territories.

(f) Trust territories.-The Assembly took major steps in associating the United Nations with the final stage of political evolution in two of the remaining trust territories-Ruanda Urundi and Western Samoa-prior to their independence. It set up a three-man Commission to supervise the forthcoming elections in the Belgian-administered East African territory of Ruanda-Urundi, and to act as political observers and advisers in order to promote peace and harmony in the territory. It also appointed a Commissioner to hold, under United Nations supervision, a plebiscite in the New Zealand administered territory of Western Samoa which would ascertain the wishes of the inhabitants concerning their future. India co-sponsored both recommendations.

(g) Non-self-governing Territories.-In order to set out the principles which should guide members in determining whether a territory was non-self-governing or not the Assembly at its fourteenth session appointed a six-member committee of which India was elected Chairman. The Committee listed 12 principles that were later approved by the Assembly at its fifteenth session. India also co-sponsored a resolution indicating all the Portuguese overseas possessions, and declaring them as non-self-governing territories on which Portugal should be asked to submit information to the General Assembly under Article 73(e) of the Charter. The resolution was adopted by the Assembly.

(h) South West Africa.-The Assembly adopted a number of important resolutions on this territory which is under a mandate administered by the Union of South Africa. It commended the governments of Ethiopia and Liberia for taking action against the Union in the International Court, and invited the Committee on South West Africa to go to the territory, and ascertain which is required to be done for restoring a climate of peace and security there. It also called upon the Union Government to revoke or rescind immediately all laws and regulations in the territory which were based on its theory of Apartheid.

(vi) Commission on Human Rights.-The Commission on Human Rights met for its 16th Session in Geneva from 29th February to 18th March, 1960. India was represented by Shri C. S. Jha, the permanent Representative of India to the United Nations, New York. He was assisted by Shri A. S. Mehta, Consul-General and Shri G. Raj, Vice-Consul at Geneva. Shri Jha was elected as First Vice-Chairman of the Commission during this Session.

(vii) All India U.N. Day Committee.-The All India United Nations Day Committee which was formed under a notification issued by the Ministry of External Affairs and whose chairman at present is the Deputy Minister for External Affairs, celebrated the United Nations Day on 24th October, 1960. The President of India was the Chief Guest at this function.

(viii) Establishment of a United Nations capital development fund.- A proposal co-sponsored by India aiming at the creation of a United Nations capital development fund was adopted by the General Assembly's economic and financial committee. It called on the General Assembly to decide 'in principle' to establish such a Fund; and further resolved that a committee of twenty-five representatives of Member States, to be designated by the President of the General Assembly on the basis of equitable geographical distribution, shall consider all concrete preparatory measures, including draft legislation. The committee has been asked to report to the Economic and Social Council and to the General Assembly in 1961.

(ix) Accelerated flow of capital & technical assistance to the developing countries.-A resolution advocating the accelerated flow of capital and technical assistance to developing countries, commonly known as the 1 per cent resolution, co-sponsored by India was adopted at the 15th session of the U.N. General Assembly. The resolution recommended that all specialised agencies and member States economically advanced as well as under-developed, shall take such measures as may be appropriate both to accelerate the flow of capital and technical assistance and to ensure its effective utilisation. It expressed the hope that the flow of international assistance and capital will be increased substantially so as to reach as soon as possible approximately one percent of the combined national incomes of the economically advanced countries.

B. INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCES

India participated in a large number of conferences held abroad under the aegis of the United Nations and Specialised Agencies. Brief reports on Indian participation in the more important of these conferences will be found in the reports of the appropriate Ministries.

A list of the International Organisations of which India is a member is also attached as an appendix.
