302 SOCIAL COMMUNICATION

- 1 Sheyholislami, Jaffer
Kurdish indentity, discourse, and new media / Jaffer Sheyholislami.-- New York: Palgrave Macmillan, 2011.
252p.
ISBN : 9780230109858.
302.230891597 SHE11
Informed by the interdisciplinary approach of Critical Discourse Analysis (CDA) and theories of identity, nation, and media, the study investigates the ways Kurds,
the world's largest stateless nation, use satellite television and Internet to construct their identities.
This book examines the complex interrelationships between ethno-national identities, discourses, and new media. Not only does offer the first study of discursive constructions of Kurdish identity in the new media, this book is also the first CDA informed comparative study of the contents of the two media. The study pushes the boundaries of the growing area of studies of identity,
nationalism and transnationalism, discourse studies,
minority language, and digital media.

- 4 Yemen: background, issues and Al-Qaeda role / Gabriel A. Dumont, Ed.-- New York: Nova Science Publishers, 2010. 182p.
ISBN : 9781617281655.
327.533073 DUM10
With limited natural resources, a crippling illiteracy rate, and high population growth, Yemen faces an array of daunting development challenges that some observers believe make it at risk for becoming a failed state. Yemen is largely dependent on external aid from Persian Gulf countries, Western donors, and international financial institutions. As the country's population rapidly rises, resources dwindle, and terrorist groups take root in the outlying provinces, the Obama Administration is left to grapple with the consequences of Yemeni instability. This book is an overview of Yemen's history, U.S. relations and the role of Al Qaeda in the region

338.9 ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND GROWTH,ECO.PLANNING

- 5 Williamson, Jeffrey G.
Trade and poverty: when the third world fell behind /
Jeffrey G. Williamson.-- Cambridge: The MIT Press, 2011.
301p.
ISBN : 9780262015158.
338.90091724 WIL11
In Trade and Poverty, leading economic historian Jeffrey G. Williamson traces the great divergence between the third world and the West to this nexus of trade, commodity specialization, and poverty. The world rapidly became global between the early nineteenth century and World War I, and the global trade boom occurred simultaneously with rising economic divergence between industrial and nonindustrial countries. Analyzing the role of specialization, deindustrialization, and commodity price volatility with econometrics and case studies of India, Ottoman Turkey, and Mexico, Williamson demonstrates why the close correlation between trade and poverty emerged. Globalization and the great divergence were causally related, and thus the rise of globalization over the past two centuries helps account for the income gap between rich and poor countries today

340 LAW

- 6 Shah, Niaz A.
Islamic law and the law of armed conflict: the armed conflict in Pakistan / Niaz A. Shah.-- London: Routledge, 2011. 165p.
ISBN : 9780415563963.
340.59 SHA11
Islamic Law and the Law of Armed Conflict: the Conflict in Pakistan demonstrates how international law can be applied in Muslim states in a way that is compatible with Islamic law. Within this broader framework of compatible application, Niaz A. Shah argues that the Islamic law of qital (i.e. armed conflict) and the law of armed conflict are compatible with each other and that the former can complement the latter at national and regional levels.
Shah identifies grey areas in the Islamic law of qital
and argues for their expansion and clarification.

355 MILITARY ART & SCIENCE

- 7 Reno, William
Warfare in independent Africa / William Reno.-- Cambridge
: Cambridge University Press, 2011. 271p.
ISBN : 9780521615525.
355.0096 REN11
This book surveys the history of armed conflict in Africa in the period since decolonization and independence. The number of post-independence conflicts in Africa has been considerable, and this book introduces to readers a comprehensive analysis of their causes and character. Tracing the evolution of warfare from anti-colonial and anti-apartheid campaigns to complex conflicts in which factionalized armies, militias, and rebel groups fight with each other and prey upon non-combatants, it allows the readers a new perspective to understand violence on the continent.
