300 SOCIAL SCIENCES

- 1 Chebankova, Elena
Civil society in Putin's Russia / Elena Chebankova.-- London: Routledge, 2013. 218p.
ISBN : 9780415656870.
300.947 CHE13 104836
Unlike other books on civil society in Russia which argue that Russia's civil society is relatively weak, and that democratisation in Russia went into reverse following Vladimir Putin's coming to power, this book contends that civil society in Russia is developing in a distinctive way. It shows that government and elite-led drives to encourage civil society have indeed been limited, and that the impact of external promotion of civil society has also not been very successful.

Introduction to Intelligence Studies provides a comprehensive overview of intelligence and security issues, defining critical terms, and reviewing the history of intelligence as practiced in the United States. Designed in a practical sequence, the book begins with the basics of intelligence, progresses through its history, describes best practices, and explores the way the IC looks and operates today. Each chapter begins with objectives and key terms and closes with questions to test reader assimilation.

327.2 DIPLOMACY

- 3 Nowotny, Thomas
Diplomacy and global governance: the diplomatic service in an age of worldwide interdependence / Thomas Nowotny.- London: Transaction Publishers, 2013. 314p.
ISBN : 1412849586.
327.2 NOW13 104837
Traditional diplomacy is based on the notion of competing nation-states, each attempting to maximize its autonomy and independence. This notion is at odds with today's world in which even mighty states are enmeshed in a web of interdependence. Much of the world's economy, information, industry, and culture have become global. Given these massive changes, argues Thomas Nowotny, much of traditional diplomacy has become redundant and sometimes counterproductive.

327.54 INDIA - FOREIGN RELATIONS

- 4 Mosca, Matthew W.
From frontier policy to foreign policy: the question of India and the transformation of geopolitics in Qing china / Matthew W. Mosca.-- California: Stanford University Press, 2013. 398p.
ISBN : 9780804782241.
327.54051 MOS13 104840
Between the mid-eighteenth and mid-nineteenth centuries, Qing rulers, officials, and scholars fused diverse, fragmented perceptions of foreign territory into one integrated worldview. In the same period, a single "foreign" policy emerged as an alternative to the many localized "frontier" policies hitherto pursued on the coast, in Xinjiang, and in Tibet. By unravelling Chinese, Manchu, and British sources to reveal the information networks used by the Qing empire to gather intelligence about its emerging rival, British India, this book explores China's altered understanding of its place in a global context. Far from being hobbled by a Sino centric worldview, Qing China's officials and scholars paid close attention to foreign affairs.

This book explores the links between European integration and globalisation, and examines the potential for social transformation in the context of the global economic crisis and the resulting EU reforms. Divided into three parts, this book offers both empirical and theoretical analyses of social integration, supranationality and global competition. Drawing on Critical Political Economy research, Neo-Gramscian, Open Marxist, Regulationist and Post-structuralist scholars subject a wide range of European flagship policies in matters of competition, trade and security to critical scrutiny and relate them to global political economy dynamics.

341 INTERNATIONAL LAW

- 6 Klabbers, Jan
International law / Jan Klabbers.-- Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2013. 350p.
ISBN : 9780521144063.

341 KLA13 105007

Written by one of the world's leading international lawyers, this is a landmark publication in the teaching of international law. International law can be defined as 'the rules governing the legal relationship between nations and states', but reality is much more complex, with political, diplomatic and socio-economic factors shaping the law and its application. This refreshingly clear, concise textbook encourages students to view international law as a dynamic system of organizing the world. Bringing international law back to its first principles, the book is organized around four questions: where does it come from? to whom does it apply? how does it resolve conflict? what does it say?

It helps to underpin an understanding of the relationship between human rights law and intellectual property law specifically between the right to health and patent protection.

956 MIDDLE EAST - GENERAL HISTORY

- 10 Kipnis, Yigal Golan heights: political history, settlement and geography since 1949 / Yigal Kipnis.-- London: Routledge, 2013. 273p.
 ISBN : 978041581235.
 956.91 KIP13 105005
 The story of the Golan Heights and its position between Syria and Israel does not belong only to the past; it is still interwoven in the political present of the two countries. Public discourse in Israel on the political future of the Golan, and the direct and indirect political discussions between Israel and Syria, rest to a great extent on personal and collective memories, and these, by nature, are based on the past. The perceptions of the Israeli public were constructed upon the image of a mountain that became a monster. This image reached its peak on the eve of the Six Day War in June 1967, but continued to be consolidated and preserved in the Israeli collective memory, and so it has remained until the present.
